

G. A. J. ROGERS

Locke's Enlightenment
Aspects of the Origin, Nature and Impact of his Philosophy

O

1998

GEORG OLMS VERLAG
HILDESHEIM • ZURICH • NEW YORK

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xii
Abbreviations of Titles	xiii
I The Writing of Locke's Essay Concerning Human Understanding	1
II Descartes and the Mind of Locke. The Cartesian Impact on Locke's Philosophical Development	23
III Locke and the Sceptical Challenge	33
IV Innate Ideas and the Infinite: the Case of Locke and Descartes	49
V The Intellectual Relationship between Hobbes and Locke - A Reappraisal	61
VI Locke, Anthropology, and Models of the Mind	79
VII The Empiricism of Locke and Newton	93
VIII Locke and the Latitude-Men: Ignorance as a Ground of Toleration	113
IX More, Locke and the Issue of Liberty	133
X Stillingfleet, Locke and the Trinity	143
XI John Locke: Conservative Radical	157
XII Nature, Man and God in the English Enlightenment	173
Index	191