

THE Growing
Business
HANDBOOK

Inspiration & Advice from Successful Entrepreneurs
& Fast Growing UK Companies

11th edition

Adam Jolly

RECOMMENDED BY
INSTITUTE OF DIRECTORS

KOGAN
PAGE

London and Philadelphia

Contents

---

Foreword	xli
Part 1: Planning for growth
1.1 Growth in adversity Ross McFarlane, RBS The current economic climate 3; Working capital 6	3
1.2 Turning points in growth Robin Tidd, CIMA Fundamentals and the evolution/change process 10; Understanding the fundamentals in changing circumstances 10; Summary 13	9
1.3 Growth strategy Allison McSparron-Edwards, Consultrix Ltd What next? 18	16
1.4 Managing growth in high-risk enterprises Professor Gavin Reid (University of St Andrews) and Dr Julia Smith (University of Strathclyde) Introduction 21; Recognizing your risks 21; Managing your growth 23; Growth and risk 23; Five maxims for success 24	21
1.5 Greening up business Dax Lovegrove, WWF-UK Good for business 26; Environmental improvements 27; Leading sectors 27	26

- 1.6 Take control of the future 29
Adrian Alexander, Mazars
 Organic growth 32; Buy and build 32; Finding the right exit 33; Key issues to think about when selling a business 33; What is a realistic valuation? 33; Grooming the business for sale 33; Conclusion 34

Part 2: Ideas and innovation

- 2.1 Creative behaviour 37
Tony Buzan, Buzan Training
 Crisis + Creativity = Opportunity 37; What is creativity and why should you work creatively? 37; Mind Maps and creativity 38; Memory and creativity 39; Speed reading and creativity 41
- 2.2 Innovation management 45
Andy Bruce, SofTools
- 2.3 A wealth in ideas 50
Jacqueline Needle, Beck Greener
 Difficult and expensive? 51; Free IP rights 51; Irrelevant for SMEs? 52; Patenting costs 52; What protection should be sought? 52; IP rights are difficult to enforce 53
- 2.4 Open innovation 55
Maxine Horn, British Design Innovation
 ‘We think’ vs ‘paid to think’ 55; The focused collective brain vs the loose collective 56; Establishing new rules 56; Commercial vs societal 57
- 2.5 Knowledge transfer 60
Dr Debbie Buckley-Golder, the Knowledge Transfer Partnerships Programme

Part 3: Gaining market share

- 3.1 Brands: from local to national 67
Enda McCarthy, Draftfcb London
 Knowing your audience, and staying true to yourself 67; The demands of marketing today 69
- 3.2 A brand to last 71
John Hall, Curious
 First off, know who you are 72; Second, know where you want to go 72; Third, identify any areas of ‘flex’ 73; Measuring all of this 73

- 3.3 Pitching and presenting 76
Nick Smallman, Working Voices
 1 Being emotionally prepared: focused not fazed 77; 2 Getting connected: create interest; work the room 77; 3 Sounding right: commitment, dynamism, credibility 77; 4 Looking the part: from head to toe 78; 5 Practising = succeeding: practise, practise, practise 79
- 3.4 Business format franchising 81
Brian Duckett, Howarth Franchising Group
 Proven, successful format 82; Easily duplicated 82; Easily learnt 82; Profitable for both parties 83; Franchising culture 83
- 3.5 Taking part in a conference 86
Sandy Maxwell-Forbes, Edinburgh International Conference Centre
 It's all in the preparation 86; Presenting 86; Present or what not to present 87; How to behave on stage 88; A few common mistakes to avoid 88; Finally, use the 3 Ps – personality, passion and purpose 89; Networking 89; Top tips 90
- 3.6 Planning mailshots 92
Andrew Miller, Royal Mail
 Working out your own direct mail objectives 92; More ideas for your direct mail objectives 92; Considering the cost of mailshots 93; Doing your sums 93; Calculating break-even 94
- 3.7 An effective sales letter 97
Andrew Miller, Royal Mail
 Writing your letter creatively 97; Choosing what to put on the envelope 100; Writing brochures and leaflets 100; Writing an effective response device 102

Part 4: People and performance

- 4.1 Flexibility for employers 105
Helen Wyatt, Goodman Derrick
 Implied terms: the duty to be adaptable 105; Implied mobility clauses 106; Express terms 106; A word of caution 108
- 4.2 The human approach 109
Nichola Annable, Opal
 The three Ms 109; Growing the tree 110

4.3	Unlocking the talent of Generation Y  Jo Causon, Chartered Management Institute                      Shattering myths – ‘I want it now’ 115; Shattering myths – ‘What’s in it for me?’ 116; Shattering myths – ‘Shy of commitment?’ 116; Moving forward 117	114
4.4	Share-related plans  Chris Blundell, Mazars                      Why have a share-related plan? 118; Attraction 119; Motivation 119; Reward 119; Retention 119; Corporate identity 119; Finding the right plan 120; Approved plans 120; Unapproved plans 121; Internationality 121	118
4.5	Work-based pensions  The Pensions Regulator                      Working with trustees 124; Communications with the regulator 125; DC and stakeholder pensions: the basics 125; DB: is your scheme underfunded? 125; Clearance: getting a fair deal for the pension scheme 126; Looking ahead 126	124
Part 5: Space for growth
5.1	New premises  Ross Feeney, South London Business Ltd                      How do I find out who owns particular premises or land? 135	133
5.2	Pride of place  Paul Stephens, Leeds City Council                      Breaking out of the encirclement 137; Business and the environment 138; An act of faith 139	137
5.3	Easy in, easy out  Tom Stokes, Evans Easyspace Ltd	141
Part 6: Cash flow and working capital
6.1	Funding options for growing enterprises  Adam Powell, Simply Business	147
6.2	Slow payments  Martin Williams, Graydon	154
6.3	Asset-based lending  Ross McFarlane, RBS Invoice Finance                      What are the benefits of ABL? 159	158

6.4	Beyond the overdraft David Robertson, Bibby Financial Services The new overdraft? 162; Invoice finance – the hard facts 163; When is invoice finance most appropriate? 164; Invoice finance: the pros 164; Invoice finance: the cons 165; Business costs 165; Choosing an invoice finance provider – do’s and don’ts 166	162
6.5	A new model for invoice finance David Thomson, Close Invoice Finance Immediate benefits of the e-factoring revolution 169; Revising the rule book on risk 170; Conclusion 172	169
6.6	Payroll finance Paul Breen, Wageroller The facility 173; Who uses it? 175	173
 Part 7: Business technology and systems
7.1	Technology risks Jon Collins, Freeform Dynamics	179
7.2	Building the network Nick Callaghan, Opal Choosing the right supplier 183; Options 184; Summary 185	183
7.3	Enterprise communications Andrew Levey, Toshiba Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) 188; Messaging solutions 190; Contact centre solutions 190; Remote and mobile working 191; Networked solutions 191	188
7.4	Videoconferencing – enabling you to grow your business Keith Gyford, First Connections Ltd So, what is videoconferencing? 194; Why use videoconferencing? 195; Why is now the time to implement videoconferencing? 195; The business drivers 196; Return on investment – the facts 196; What solution is best for you? 197	194
 Part 8: SME productivity
8.1	Global sourcing Emma Clarke, CIPS Where it all began? 201; Global economies make global businesses 202; Globalization and the emerging markets 202; Risks and challenges of globalization 203; Political unrest and globalization 204; The future of globalization and procurement 204	201

8.2	Partnering in teams 207  Dr Sarah Peace and Professor John Bennett, CIOB                      What is partnering and why does it deliver benefits? 207
8.3	Smarter sustainability 210  David Tebbutt, Freeform Dynamics                      Company imperatives and carbon 210; ICT 211; Equipment and resources 212; A holistic approach 213
8.4	Managing a fleet 215  Keith Hawes, Renault UK                      Fleet funding 215; Flexible rental 216; Whole-life costs 216; The ‘grey’ fleet 217; Less is more – reducing business mileage 218; Safe fleet operations 218; Outsourcing and fleet management 219
8.5	Better-quality contracts 221  Jon Murthy, UKAS                      What services can be accredited? 222; How does accreditation work? 222; Why accreditation? 224; Global marketplace 224; Internal benefits 225; Using accredited services 226
8.6	Making your supply chain work for you 229  Chris Wright, Skillweb                      Fulfilment 229; Your customer 230; E-tailers 230; Internal or outsourced distribution team 231; Making your supply chain work 232
8.7	SMEs and business process outsourcing 234  Jeeshu Ganguly, NIIT Smartserve

Part 9: Managing fast growth

9.1	Pick the right options for growth 241  Andrew Horder, Business Strategy Solutions Ltd                      The importance of focus 241; The importance of attractiveness 242; The importance of viability 243; Assessing business growth opportunities 244
9.2	Managing the risks to your business strategy 248  Keith Baxter, De-Risk                      Successful projects do not ensure success 248; Brainstorming threats is not the answer 249; Assumptions analysis – not risk analysis – is the answer 249; Testing strategic assumptions 249; Interpreting the results and taking action 250; The importance of the external perspective 250; Risk escalation 251

- 9.3 Professional quality 254
Michael Debenham, CQI
 Customer focus 255; Management of risk 255; Corporate care and responsibility 256; Business improvement 256; Business direction and product development 256; Change management 256; Business system analysis and design 257; In conclusion 257
- 9.4 Making the right choices 260
Ky Nichol and Martin Wolf, Pcubed
 What is portfolio management? 260; Implementation accelerators 261; Approach 262; Building the yardstick 262; What does good look like? 262; Can we do it? 263; Making it happen 263; Beating the odds 264
- 9.5 Project risk management – positively useless? 265
Keith Baxter, De-Risk
 Why doesn't traditional risk management work? 266; What can be done to make risk management work? 266; Why assumption analysis works 267; Assumption analysis in practice 267
- 9.6 Five simple tips for buying the right insurance 269
Chris Slater, Simply Business
 1. Tailor the insurance to your trade or business type 269; 2. Cover all the legal and professional requirements 270; 3. Read the policy documents carefully 270; 4. Don't be afraid to ask questions 270; 5. Go for the more detailed online quote forms 270

Part 10: International expansion

- 10.1 Managing the challenges of international growth 275
Stan Paliwoda, Department of Marketing, University of Strathclyde
- 10.2 The export challenge 279
Jim Sherlock
- 10.3 Faster payments 283
Jane Barber, Global Transaction Services UK
 Benefits 284
- 10.4 Doing business in India 286
Shavak J Kapadia, Mazars
 India: key figures 286; Why invest in India? 287; The three main choices of business entity for foreign investment in India 287; Some tips on business interaction 289

Part 11: Acquisitions

- 11.1 Managing an acquisition 293
Christopher Jones and Jason Curl, Sunbelt
 Steps to M&A – the acquisition process 293; 1. Set the objective: ‘Why are we doing this?’ 293; 2. Assemble the team 294; 3. Develop criteria for the target acquisition 295; 4. Apply criteria, find candidates 297; 5. Narrow the field; approach key prospects 298; 6. Letter of intent, due diligence, structure and close 299
- 11.2 A legal guide to acquisitions 301
Edward Sanguinetti, Goodman Derrick
 Types of acquisition 301; Initial negotiation and heads of terms 302; Due diligence 302; Completion 303
- 11.3 Close the deal 305
Andrew Millington, Mazars
 Try to keep it simple 305; Have creative ideas ready if necessary 305; Use of leverage 306; Look at the situation from someone else’s perspective 306; Have a ‘Plan B’ 306; Think about the tax implications early 307; Leave some headroom in the financing 307; If you are buying don’t overpay 307

Part 12: Growth capital

- 12.1 Financing growth 311
Catherine Martin, Mazars
 What corrective action can be taken by a business leader facing any of these situations? 312; Staging posts 313
- 12.2 Financial challenges 316
Matthew Holmes, Liquid Accounts
- 12.3 Tax-efficient fundraising 321
Adrian Mole, Mazars
 Reconsider whether finance is actually needed 322; Does it need to be external finance at all? 322; To lease or to buy? 322; Is it best to raise finance through debt or equity? 322; How does a company make equity tax efficient for the investor? 323; Concluding remarks 324
- 12.4 Business turnarounds 325
Simon Plant and Daniel Plant, SFP
 Where do you go for reliable advice? 325; When must you act? 326; What are the options if your company is found to be insolvent? 326; What about the employees? 327; What are the options if your company is not insolvent? 327; How can an asset-based lender assist in an insolvency scenario? 328

12.5	Financial reporting for the growing business Philip Pickles and Jon Sutton, Dixon Wilson Getting the basics right 330; Striking the balance – detail vs focus 331; Striking the balance – timeliness vs quality 331; Statutory financial reporting 332; Coming to grips with acquisitions 332; Choosing the right finance team 332; Conclusion 333	330
Part 13: Exits and succession
13.1	Developing an exit strategy Thomas Picton, Sunbelt	341
13.2	Exit options Thomas Picton, Sunbelt	344
13.3	Selling for maximum value Malcolm Murray, BCMS Corporate Avoid passivity 349; Motives for purchase 350; Creating bidder competition 350; Future potential 351	349
13.4	Preparing a business for sale Peter Gray, Cavendish Corporate Finance Positioning 352; Financial matters 353; Strategic/operational matters 353; Other matters 356; Conclusion 357	352
13.5	Tax and legals Huw Morgan-Thomas, Sunbelt Business asset sale or share sale? 359; Tax issues 359; Stages in the legal process relating to a business sale 360	359
	Index of advertisers	363