

Cooperative Governance:
a multi-perspective exploration on the strategic direction and control of cooperative groups

DISSERTATION
of the University of St. Gallen,
Graduate School of Business Administration,
Economics, Law and Social Sciences (HSG) to obtain the title of Doctor of Business Administration

submitted by Mischa Eckart
from
Basel and Riehen (Basel)

Approved on the application of

Prof. Dr. Martin Hilb and
Prof. Dr. Andreas Griiner

' LIECHTENSTEIN
Bibliothek

Dissertation no. 3009

Difo-Druck GmbH, Bamberg 2005

Content details

1)1(ivi-//t i.-i.-r^

Part One: Introduction 1

1 Research problem 1

 1.1 Empirical footing 1

 1.2 Practical relevance 3

 1.2.1 Increased relevance of organizational cooperation 3

 1.2.2 Increased relevance of organizational governance 5

 1.2.3 Special relevance of cooperative groups to governance and vice versa 6

 1.2.4 Increased relevance of co-operatives 7

 1.3 Theoretical relevance 8

2 Objectives 9

3 Research approach 10

 3.1 General approach 10

 3.2 Applied orientation 11

 3.3 Ontology 12

 3.4 Methodology 13

 3.4.1 Theoretical and empirical parts 13

 3.4.2 Choice of research strategy 13

 3.4.3 Validity and reliability 15

 3.4.4 Quantitative and qualitative methods 16

 3.5 Limitations 17

4 Structure 18

5 Basic theoretical considerations 21

 5.1 Organizations 21

 5.1.1 Managerial opportunism or strategic entrepreneurship 22

 5.1.2 Methodological individualism or organizational whole 24

 5.1.3 Extrinsic or intrinsic motivation 26

 5.1.4 Ex ante or ex post view of organizations 26

 5.1.5 Synthesis 28

 5.2 Governance of organizations 28

 5.2.1 Governance as steering 29

 5.2.2 Governance debate 30

 5.2.3 Good governance 37

 5.2.4 Synthesis 39

 5.3 Organizational cooperation 40

 5.3.1 Rationale for cooperation 40

 5.3.2 Cooperative designs 41

 5.3.3 Governance of organizational cooperation 42

 5.3.4 Synthesis 43

 5.4 Theoretical dualities 44

6 Characteristics and governance issues of cooperative groups 45

Part Two: Theoretical Exploration 53

7 Exploration framework 53

 7.1 Theoretical and practical perspectives 53

 7.2 Governance categories 54

 7.3 Combination 57

8 Exploration perspectives 58

 8.1 Traditional co-operatives 58

 8.1.1 About this perspective 58

 8.1.2 Co-operative governance structures 67

 8.1.3 Co-operative governance processes 75

 8.1.4 Dynamics of co-operative governance 80

 8.1.5 Summary and comment on the governance issues 82

 8.2 Transaction costs 84

 8.2.1 About this perspective 84

 8.2.2 Exploration 87

 8.2.3 Summary and comment on the governance issues 89

8.3	Agency.....	91
8.3.1	About this perspective.....	91
8.3.2	Exploration.....	92
8.3.3	Summary and comment on the governance issues.....	94
8.4	Inducement-contribution.....	96
8.4.1	About this perspective.....	96
8.4.2	Exploration.....	98
8.4.3	Summary and comment on the governance issues.....	99
8.5	Franchise systems.....	101
8.5.1	About this perspective.....	101
8.5.2	Exploration.....	104
8.5.3	Summary and comment on the governance issues.....	105
8.6	Multidivisional organizations.....	107
8.6.1	About this perspective.....	107
8.6.2	Exploration.....	109
8.6.3	Summary and comment on the governance issues.....	112
8.7	Federations.....	113
8.7.1	About this perspective.....	113
8.7.2	Exploration.....	115
8.7.3	Summary and comment on the governance issues.....	118
9	Summary and intermediate results.....	119
9.1	Summary of the insights gained in the perspectives.....	119
9.2	Expansion of the exploration template.....	123
9.3	Intermediate advice from the theoretical exploration.....	124
Part Three: Empirical Exploration.....129
10	Research objectives and design.....	129
11	Challenges of Swiss retail banks.....	132
12	Raiffeisen Group.....	139
12.1	Introduction.....	139
12.2	Governance structures of the Raiffeisen Group.....	145
12.2.1	Group governance structure.....	145
12.2.2	Structure of the membership.....	147
12.2.3	Union governance structure.....	148
12.2.4	Financing of the Union.....	152
12.2.5	Reflection on the governance structure.....	152
12.3	Roles of the Union.....	155
12.3.1	Multiple roles.....	155
12.3.2	Reflection on the roles of the Union.....	156
12.4	Governance processes in the Raiffeisen Group.....	159
12.4.1	Basic anatomy of the participatory strategy process.....	160
12.4.2	Discussion of the Group strategy in the bank manager and presidents fora.....	161
12.4.3	Reflection on the example processes.....	163
12.4.4	Reflection on the implementation process.....	164
12.4.5	Reflection on member control process.....	166
12.4.6	Reflection on the Union control process.....	167
12.5	Relationships within the Group.....	167
12.6	Dynamics of the Group.....	170
12.7	Boards in the Group.....	172
12.7.1	Union boards.....	172
12.7.2	Local boards.....	174
12.8	Summary and reflection on the theoretical advice.....	175
12.9	Comment on the cooperative governance issues.....	179
13	RBA Group.....	181
13.1	Introduction.....	181
13.2	Governance structure of the RBA Group.....	183
13.2.1	Basic structure.....	183
13.2.2	Sub-groupings.....	184

Cooperative Governance

13.2.3	Exiting banks	189
13.3	Roles of the RBA Holding	191
13.4	Governance processes in the RBA Group	194
13.5	Relationships in the RBA Group	196
13.6	Dynamics of the RBA Group	196
13.7	Boards in the RBA Group	198
13.8	Summary and reflection on the theoretical advice	199
13.9	Comment on the cooperative governance issues	204
14	Conclusions for the cooperative governance issues	205
Part Four: Cooperative Governance Framework		211
15	Cooperative governance framework	211
15.1	Clearly hybrid governance structures	214
15.2	Value-adding group governance role	217
15.3	Moderated governance processes	221
15.4	Partner governance relationships	227
15.5	Cooperatively integrated governance boards	232
15.6	Differentiating governance dynamics	234
15.7	Framework summary	238
15.8	Implications on the cooperative governance issues	239
15.8.1	Implications on strategic direction-setting in cooperative groups	239
15.8.2	Implications on managerial control in cooperative groups	240
15.8.3	Implications on mutual member control in cooperative groups	241
16	Combined framework	241
16.1	Must-have and potentially differentiating dimension	241
16.2	Cooperative governance competence	243
16.3	Evolution	246
16.3.1	Note on competitive advantage	247
[6.3.2	The cases revisited	248
17	Strategic initiatives	249
17.1	Strategic planning and controlling initiative	249
17.2	Outsourcing initiative	250
17.3	Cooperative education initiative	251
17.4	Dialogue facility initiative	252
17.5	Relationship management initiative	253
17.6	Portfolio	254
Part Five: Summary and Implications		259
18	Summary	259
18.1	Exploration summary	259
18.2	Framework summary	263
19	Implications	266
19.1	Implications for practice	266
19.2	Implications for research	268
19.2.1	Contributions	268
19.2.2	Future research	269
20	Dialogue facility	270
Appendices		275
Bibliography		285
Curriculum vitae		301