

Peter Behrens and a New Architecture for the Twentieth Century

Stanford Anderson

The MIT Press
Cambridge, Massachusetts
London, England

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction ix

- 1 A Context for the Early Work of Behrens: The Emergence of a New Architecture in Germany and Austria around 1900 1
  - 2 Behrens's Changing Concept of Life as Art: A Review of the Early Work 27
  - 3 Behrens's Highest Kultursymbol, the Theater: Darmstadt, 1900–1903 45
  - 4 Theory and Teaching of Architecture: Düsseldorf, 1903–1907 69
  - 5 Modern Architecture and Industry, a Cultural Policy of Historical Determinism: Berlin I 95
  - 6 Industrial Design, a Strategy for Uniting Technology and Art: Berlin II 113
  - 7 Architecture for Industry, the AEG Factories: Berlin III 129
  - 8 Expression, Convention, and Convention as Expression: Berlin IV 165
  - 9 The Interwar Years 221
- Conclusion 255
- Notes 261
- List of Architectural Works by Peter Behrens 323
- Bibliography and Sources 373
- Illustration Credits 409
- Index 415