

Prof. Francis Lyall

An Introduction to British Law

n Nomos Verlagsgesellschaft Baden-Baden

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editor's Preface	12
Author's Preface	13

PART I : INTRODUCTION

1.1. Tradition, fields of law and legal sources.	17
1.1.1 The tradition of the legal systems.	18
a. Reception.	18
b. English law.	20
c. Scots law.	21
1.1.2. The fields of law.	22
a. Private law - Public law - Criminal law.	22
b. Substantive law, formal right and adjective law.	23
1.1.3. Sources of law.	24
a. Legislation : Statutory law and its importance.	24
b. Hierarchy of legislation.	26
c. Case law.	27
d. Recognised custom.	28
e. Prerogative.	29
f. European Community law.	29
g. Law of Nations (Public International Law).	30
1.2. Jurisdiction.	30
1.2.1. Introduction.	30
1.2.2. The different branches of jurisdiction.	30
a. Civil Jurisdiction.	30
b. Criminal Jurisdiction.	31
c. Jurisdiction of labour courts.	32
d. Administrative jurisdiction.	32
e. Social Security jurisdiction.	33
f. Finance court jurisdiction.	33
g. Jurisdiction of the constitutional court.	34
1.3. The Legal Profession.	34
1.4. Legal Literature.	36
1.4.1. Compendiums of laws.	36
1.4.2. Law Reports.	37

1.4.3. Law books.	38
1.4.4. Commentaries.	39
1.4.5. Law Reviews.	39
1.4.6. Computers and the Law.	40
1.5. Law Reform	41
1.6. Ministering Justice	41

PART II : PUBLIC LAW

II. 1. Public Law and Constitutional Law.	43
II. 1.1. General.	43
II. 1.2. An unwritten constitution.	44
II. 1.3. The Conventions of the Constitution.	46
II. 1.4. History.	47
II. 1.5. Parliamentary sovereignty: the legislative supremacy of parliament.	55
II. 1.6 Parliamentary privilege.	57
II.2. State law and constitutional law.	60
II. 2.1. Constitutional law.	60
a. Introduction.	60
aa. Idea, traits and functions of the constitution.	60
The separation of powers.	60
bb. Purview, and the law of nationality.	61
b. Fundamental rights.	62
aa. Idea, traits and functions of fundamental rights.	62
bb. Particular fundamental rights.	63
cc. The legal protection of fundamental rights.	65
c. The governmental system.	66
aa. General characteristics of the constitution	66
bb. The organs of state :
the Crown, the Legislature and the Executive.	67
1. The Crown.	67
2. The Legislature: Parliament.	68
a. The House of Lords.	69
b. The House of Commons.	72
c. Conflict between the Houses.	74
d. The European Parliament and other institutions.	75

3. The Executive.	76
a. Government ministries.	77
b. Ministers.	78
c. The Prime Minister and the Cabinet.	78
d. The Cabinet.	79
e. The Civil Service.	80
f. Nationalised industries.	81
cc. Incorporation of European Community Law ; the Law of Nations.	81
dd. The position of political parties in the constitution.	82
ee. Status of religious bodies.	82
1. The Established Churches.	83
2. The Church of England	84
3. The Church of Scotland	85
4. Other churches.	86
ff. Financial constitution.	88
gg. State emergency.	89
II.3 Administrative Law.	91
11.3.1. Introduction.	91
a. The administrative organisation and duties.	91
b. Public property law.	92
c. Legal acting by the public administration.	93
d. Administrative procedure.	93
e. Public liability.	94
11.3.2. Important branches of administrative law.	96
a. Police law.	96
b. Local government and municipal law.	97
c. Town and Country Planning.	101
d. Construction law.	103
e. Law concerning aliens: immigration.	103
f. Military law.	106
g. Environmental law.	108
h. Education and Cultural law.	110
i. Civil and public services law.	112
j. Health and Safety at Work.	113
k. National Health.	114
1. Social security law.	116
m. Housing.	117
n. Economic administration law.	118
o. Media law.	119
p. Public right of way, roads and traffic law.	122
q. Tax law.	123

II. 3.3. Remedies in Administrative Law.	123
1. Administrative remedies	124
a. Administrative remedies: tribunals	124
b. Parliamentary remedies	126
c. The Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration	126
d. Other Commissioners	128
2. Judicial remedies	129
a. Appeal on law	129
b. Judicial review of administrative action	129

PART III : CRIMINAL LAW

III. 1. History and System of Criminal Law.	137
III.2. The General Part of Criminal Law.	137
III. 2.1. Extent of validity.	139
a. Breach of Law	139
Territorially	140
III.2.2. The Criminal Act.	140
a. Basis of Liability to Penalty.	140
b. Attempt and completed crime.	143
c. Commission and complicity.	144
d. Defences	145
e. Legal justification and excuses.	146
III. 2.3. The legal consequences of crime.	146
a. Penalties, fines and other penal sanctions.	146
b. Sentence: the award of punishment.	152
c. Mercy, Pardon and Miscarriage of Justice.	154
III. 2.4. The limitation of criminal prosecution.	154
III. 2.5. The Rehabilitation of Offenders.	155
III. 3. Different offences.	156
111.4. Juvenile penal law.	158
111.5. Criminal procedure.	160
III.5.1. Idea, traits and functions of the criminal trial.	160
The Jury.	160
III. 5.2. Procedural principles.	162

111.5.3. Criminal prosecution.	163
England.	163
Scotland.	166
111.5.4. Preparation and process of the trial.	168
a. Choice of forum.	168
b. Time limits.	168
c. Bail.	169
d. Trial procedure and practice.	170
III. 5.5. Execution of sentence.	172

PART IV : PRIVATE LAW

IV. 1. History and System of the Civil Law.	173
IV.2. The General Part of Private Law.	176
IV. 2.1. Legal transactions.	176
a. Types of legal transaction.	177
b. Legal acts : legal transactions.	177
aa. The will and its expression or representation.	178
bb. The absence of intention.	178
cc. Legal capacity of individuals.	179
dd. Juristic persons.	180
ee. Legal forms or forma.	180
ff. Illegality and unconscionability.	181
gg. Agency.	182
IV.2.2. Limitation of actions, prescription.	185
IV.3. The General Part of the Law of Obligations (contract).	185
IV.3.1. Principle of good faith.	186
IV.3.2. Offer and Acceptance: consideration.	187
IV.3.3. Impossibility, frustration and error or mistake.	189
a. Impossibility.	189
b. Frustration.	190
c. Error or Mistake.	190
IV.3.4 Terms express and implied. Interpretation.	191
a. Term express and implied.	191
b. Interpretation.	192
IV.3.5. Forms and standard or adhesion contracts.	192
a. Forms.	192
b. Standard or adhesion contracts.	193
IV.3.6. Termination of contract: performance, agreement, frustration and extinction of a claim.	193

IV.3.7. Interference with the performance of an obligation.	194
IV. 3.8. The general right of indemnity.	195
IV. 3.9. The effects of a contract on third parties.	195
IV. 3.10. Plurality of creditors or debtors.	196
IV.4. The Particular Part of the Law of Obligations.	197
IV.4.1. Contracts protected by law.	197
a. Sale, Purchase: Sale of Goods.	197
aa. Contractual obligations.	198
bb. The passing of property.	198
cc. The passing of the risk.	199
dd. Warranty.	199
ee. Particular types of contracts.	200
b. Gift (donation).	200
c. Lease.	200
d. Service and Services.	202
e. Other types of contract.	202
IV.4.2. Management of affairs without mandate.	203
IV.4.3. Obligations arising by operation of law.	204
a. Quasi- contract (illicit enrichment).	204
IV.4.4. Special types of contracts.	205
IV.4.5. General terms and conditions of trade and customer protection.	207
IV.5. The Law of Torts (delict) and strict liability.	210
IV.6. The Law of Property.	214
IV.6.1. Possession.	215
IV.6.2. Property.	216
a. Corporeal property.	216
b. Incorporeal property.	217
IV.6.3. Security rights.	218
IV.7. Family Law.	219
IV.7.1. General.	219
IV.7.2. Marriage.	219
IV. 7.3. Termination of marriage.	222
a. Death.	222
b. Presumption of death.	222
c. Divorce.	222
d. Nullity	223
IV.7.3. Other arrangements with legal consequences.	223
IV.7.4. Parent and child.	223

IV.8. Law of Succession.	225
IV.9. International Private Law.	228
IV. 10. Commercial and Company law.	229
IV. 10.1. General.	229
a. Commercial law.	229
b. Trade Associations	229
c. Partnership.	230
aa. Limited Partnership.	231
bb. Termination of partnership.	231
cc. Advantages and disadvantages of partnership.	232
d. Companies.	232
aa. Private companies.	234
c. Negotiable instruments.	235
aa. Definition.	235
bb. Bills of exchange and cheque law.	235
IV. 10.2. Competition law, the legal protection of industrial property and copyright.	236
a. Competition law.	236
b. Patents, Copyright, and the protection of industrial property.	237
IV.10.3. Insolvency law.	238
a. Company insolvency.	239
b. Bankruptcy of an individual.	240
IV. 10.4. Insurance law.	240
IV.11. Labour Law.	242
IV. 11.1. The development and sources of Labour Law.	242
IV. 11.2. Individual Labour Law.	242
IV. 11.2. Collective Labour Law.	246
IV. 11.3. Industrial Relations.	247
IV. 12. The rules of civil procedure.	249
IV. 12.1. Idea, traits and functions of civil trial jurisdiction.	249
IV. 12.2. The principles of civil procedure.	251
IV. 12.3. The preparation and process of civil trial.	252
IV. 12.4. Compulsory execution of judgement.	252
IV. 12.5. The international rules of civil procedure.	253
Bibliography.	255
Index.	257