

Les Coleman

Why Managers and Companies Take Risks

With 24 Figures
and 46 Tables

Physica-Verlag

A Springer Company

Contents

Preface .....	V
1 Introduction.....	1
Research Problems Tackled by this Book .....	1
The Analytical Strategy of this Book.....	7
The Contribution to this Book.....	14
This Book in Context of the Literature.....	16
2 Theory of Risk and Decision Making in Management... 	21
Definitions of Risks.....	21
Incorporation of Risk into Decision Making Theory.....	28
Specifying Managerial Risk Preference.....	31
Summary and Conclusions.....	38
3 Behavioural Evidence on Risk and Decision Making... 	41
Principal Studies.....	42
Animal Studies of Risk and Decision Making .....	41
Human Studies of Risk and Decision Making .....	45
Summary of Experimental Findings .....	56
4 Real-World Decision Making Under Risk.....	63
Principal Studies.....	63
Personality and Risky Decision Making .....	64
Nationality and Risky Decision Making .....	66
Environmental, Temporal and Framing Effects on Risky Decision Making .....	68
Style Effects in Risky Decision Making .....	72
Bayesian Considerations in Risky Decision Making .....	76
Other Influences on Risky Decision Making .....	80
Decision Making Evidence from Racetrack Gambling.....	81
Discussion.....	85
Summary.....	89

- 5 Risk-Taking and Organisation Performance.....91
  - Financial Risk and Performance in Organisations.....91
  - Studies of the Impact of Risk on Firm-Specific Returns.....96
  - Company Influences.....96
  - Institutional Framework.....100
  - Longshot Bias in Organisations.....103
  - Summary and Conclusions.....107

- 6 Published Models of Decision Making Under Risk.....115
  - Models of Decision Making Under Risk.....115
  - Mathematical Models.....115
  - Descriptive Decision Making Models.....117
  - Prospect Theory: Does It Describe Reality?.....119
  - Description and Implications of Prospect Theory.....123
  - Testable Hypotheses of Prospect Theory.....125
  - Real-world Applications of Prospect Theory.....130
  - Discussion and Conclusions.....142
  - Inadequacies of Current Decision Making Models.....144

- 7 Why Managers Take Risks.....149
  - Summary of Decision Making Behaviours.....149
  - Research Methodology.....154
  - Choice of Survey Technology and Structure.....157
  - Survey Participants.....157
  - Measures of Survey Respondents' Personal Traits.....159
  - Research Deficiencies.....164
  - Managerial Risk Taking: Carter Racing Team Scenario.....165
  - Data and Respondents' Characteristics.....166
  - Internal Consistency of Answers.....169
  - Univariate Influences on Risk Propensity.....175
  - Multiple Regression of Influences on Risk Taking.....177
  - Discussion.....179

- 8 How Companies Control Risks.....185
  - Data and Respondents' Characteristics.....185
  - Organisational Risk Strategies.....187
  - Organisational Risk Outlook.....193
  - Executives' Perceptions of the Business Environment.....194
  - Executives' Attitudes Towards Risk.....195
  - Risk Outcomes for Organisations.....199
  - Influence of Risk on Financial Results.....209
  - Corporate Risk Propensity.....211

Discussion .....	217
9 Summary and Discussion.....	225
Influence of Risk on Real-World Decision Making: An Update of Applied Behavioural Economics .....	225
Personality.....	228
Heavy Discount for Future Costs.....	231
Decision Making Biases.....	232
Reference Level.....	235
Identification with Outcome.....	236
Portfolio Effects.....	238
Institutional Framework and Socialisation Effects.....	239
The Links between Risk and Organisation Performance.....	241
Measures of Organisation Risk.....	241
Organisational Risk Attractors.....	243
Organisational Performance.....	245
Conclusion.....	247
10 Risk Budget Theory.....	249
Key Elements of Decision Making Under Risk.....	249
Decision Maker Personality and Perception.....	249
Risk Sensitive Foraging and Reference Levels.....	252
Mental Accounting and Longshot Bias.....	254
Outline of Risk Budget Theory.....	255
Risk Budget Theory.....	255
Discussion.....	261
Validation of Risk Budget Theory.....	265
RBT's Explanation of Financial Decisions.....	265
Conclusion Testing.....	268
Conclusion.....	270
Appendix 10A: Mathematical Solution of RBT Examples.....	273
11 Conclusions.....	277
Answers to the Research Questions.....	277
What Leads Managers to Choose a Risky Alternative?.....	277
What Determines Whether Risky Choices Prove Correct?.....	279
Enterprise Level Risk Strategy.....	281
The Case for Enterprise Level Risk Strategy.....	281
People Selection.....	283
Framing Corporate Risk Philosophy.....	284
Evaluating Decision Risk.....	286
Managing Implementation Risk.....	287

X Why Managers and Companies Take Risks

Reporting Corporate Risk Strategy.....	288
Endnote.....	289
Appendix: Copy of Survey Materials.....	291
Letter to Potential Respondents.....	292
Carter Racing Case Study.....	293
Carter Racing Survey Questionnaire.....	294
Survey on Corporate Risk Management Questionnaire.....	307
References.....	327
Index.....	347