

International Entrepreneurship Education

Issues and Newness

Edited by

Alain Fayolle

EM Lyon and CERAG Laboratory, France, and Solvay Business School, Belgium

Heinz Klandt

European Business School, Germany

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

Contributors	vii
Foreword by Allan Gibb	ix
1 Issues and newness in the field of entrepreneurship education: new lenses for new practical and academic questions Alain Fayolle and Heinz Klandt	1
PART ONE KEY ISSUES IN ENTREPRENEURSHIP EDUCATION
2 Learning and teaching entrepreneurship: dilemmas, reflections and strategies Per Blenker, Poul Dreisler, Helle M. Fcergeman and John Kjeldsen	21
3 Entrepreneurship education: can business schools meet the challenge? David A. Kirby	35
4 To support the emergence of academic entrepreneurs: the role of business plan competitions Lorella Cannavacciuolo, Guido Capaldo, Gianluca Esposito, Luca Iandoli and Mario Raffa	55
5 Attitudes, intentions and behaviour: new approaches to evaluating entrepreneurship education Alain Fayolle and Jean Michel Degeorge	74
PART TWO ABOUT THE NEWNESS IN METHODOLOGICAL APPROACHES TO TEACH ENTREPRENEURSHIP
6 The continental and Anglo-American approaches to entrepreneurship education - differences and bridges Paula Kyro	93
7 Mentoring for entrepreneurs as an education intervention Asko Miettinen	112

8	Can you teach entrepreneurs to write their business plan? An empirical evaluation of business plan competitions Benoit Gailly	133
9	Skills demonstrations: a possibility for meaningful co-operation with work-life in internationalizing vocational education Seija Mahlamdki-Kultanen	155
10	Pathways to new business opportunities: innovations and strategies for the entrepreneurial classroom Jill Kickul	168
PART THREE DIFFUSING AND PROMOTING ENTREPRENEURIAL CULTURE AND DEVELOPING ENTREPRENEURIAL POTENTIAL
11	Developing an entrepreneurial spirit among engineering college students: what are the educational factors? Caroline Verzat and Remi Bachelet	191
12	Undergraduate students as a source of potential entrepreneurs: a comparative study between Italy and Argentina Sergio Postigo, Donato Iacobucci and Maria Fernanda Tamborini	218
13	Entrepreneurship education among students at a Canadian university: an extensive empirical study of students' entrepreneurial preferences and intentions Yvon Gasse and Maripier Tremblay	241
14	Motivations and drawbacks concerning entrepreneurial action: a study of French PhD students Jean-Pierre Boissin, Jean-Claude Castagnos and Berangere Deschamps	263
15	Entrepreneurship education for the African informal sector Hanas A. Coder and David W. Norman	277
	Index	297