

ILYA REPIN
and the World of Russian Art

BY
ELIZABETH KRIDL VALKENIER

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

NEW YORK

---

---

CONTENTS

ILLUSTRATIONS	vii
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xi
INTRODUCTION	xiii
I. THE PROVINCIAL BACKGROUND: 1844–1862	I
An Unpromising Setting • Parents • Social Background • The Amenities of Chuguev • The Ukraine • First Steps in Art • The Artistic Scene in St. Petersburg • Selections
2. ST. PETERSBURG AND THE IMPERIAL ACADEMY: THE 1860s	19
Training at the Academy • Friendships • Kramskoy and Stasov as Mentors • Training Outside the Academy • Volga Barge Haulers • Attainment of Independence • Selections
3. ENCOUNTERS WITH THE WEST: 1873–1876	45
Initial Expectations and Reactions • The Russian Circle in Paris • Repin and Western Art • Sadko • Paris Café • Securing Repin's Allegiance • Paris Summed Up • Selections
4. CHUGUEV AND MOSCOW: 1876–1882	69
St. Petersburg and the Move to Chuguev • The     Archdeacon • Moscow and Its Patrons • Repin Joins the Peredvizhniki • Tsarevna Sophia and Historical Genre • Portraiture • The Peasant Theme— Procession of the Cross • Moscow's Limitations • Selections

5.	IN STEP WITH THE LIBERAL INTELLIGENTSIA: THE 1880s	101
	Artistic Life • Personal Life • Friendships with the Liberals • The Artistic Entourage • The Established Master • The Revolutionary Theme • They Did Not Expect Him and Ivan the Terrible • Revolutionaries as Christian Martyrs • Selections
6.	SEARCHES AND NEW DEPARTURES: THE 1890s	125
	The New Generation and the Peredvizhniki • The Academy Transformed • The Break with Stasov, and the New Aesthetics • Repin versus Tolstoy • Rapprochement with the World of Art Circle • Repin's Public Art and Private Searches • Selections
7.	THE SPOKESMAN FOR TRADITION: 1900-1914	157
	Private and Social Life • Repin's Prominence and the 1905 Revolution • The State Council • Disputes: Bad Art, Wrong Art • The Slashing of Ivan the Terrible • Selections
8.	THE LAST YEARS: 1917-1930, AND BEYOND	183
	Daily Life • Professional Activities • Art: Religious Themes • Political Opinions • Contacts with the Soviets • Socialist Realism and Repin • Selections
	NOTES	205
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	229
	INDEX	237