

The Establishment

A private domain corporate form
under the laws of Liechtenstein

A

Dr. Dr. Alfred Bühler, the author of this article, is Président of Euromanagement & Trust Company Est.
14, Heiligkreuz, FL-9490 Vaduz, Liechtenstein.
Téléphone: 075/2 23 34
Télex: 77 883
Cable: Rebul, Vaduz

Table of contents

Introduction.	5
A Liechtenstein.	6
B Liechtenstein Law of Individuals and Companies.	8
C Tax Privilèges for Holding and Domiciliary Companies.	10
I. The Holding Company Privilège	10
II. The Domicile Privilège.	10
D The Establishment	11
I. Légal Basis and Concept of the Establishment	11
II. The Formation of an Establishment	12
1. TheName.	13
2. The Purpose.	14
3. The Capital.	14
4. The Public Register.	15
III. The Organization of the Establishment	15
1. The Founder.	15
2. The Board of Directors (Management)	16
3. The Auditors.	17
4. The Résident Agent.	17
IV. The Activities of the Establishment	18
V. The Beneficiaries.	19
VI. The Liability of the Establishment	19
VII. The Accounting for the Establishment	20
VIII. The Liquidation of the Establishment	20
IX. Taxes and Fées of the holding or domiciliary Establishment	21
X. Double Taxation Treaty Liechtenstein-Austria	22
Citations of Basic Law.	23