

LIECHTENSTEIN'S UNCERTAIN FOUNDATIONS

ANATOMY OF A TAX HAVEN

U. E. Ramati

Hazlemore Limited
Tax Publications

Table of Contents

Introduction	13
Chapter 1
The Tax Haven Phenomenon	15
Why tax havens exist	15
Characteristics	15
Cross-border relationships	16
The private investor	16
Risks	17
Proliferation	18
Sources of information	19
Legal advice	19
Chapter 2
The Country	21
Demography and history	21
The economy	22
Economic growth	23
The budget and national accounts	23
The services sector	24
Dearth of white collar staff	24
Chapter 3
Banking in Liechtenstein and Switzerland	26
The Liechtenstein banks	26
Flow of business from Switzerland	27
Para-banking activity	28
The new Banking Act	28
Swiss controls and Liechtenstein	29
Withholding tax on interest	30
Bank secrecy in Switzerland	30

Bank identification of clients	30
Internal identification procedures	31
Using a lawyer for anonymity	31
The meaning of the identification measures	32
Bank secrecy in Liechtenstein	32

Chapter 4

Foreign Relations	34
Swiss relations	34
The customs union treaty	35
Monetary co-operation	35
Impact of Swiss legal measures	36
Liechtenstein, EFTA and the EEA	37
Impact of the EEA	38

Chapter 5

Tax Haven Liechtenstein	39
Suitability as a tax haven	39
Misleading comparisons	39
Special characteristics	40
The legal entities	41
Private investors	41
The accommodation founder	42
Critique of accommodation founders	43
The 'founder'	43
Different meanings of founder'	44
Statutes, founders and the Board	44
The Statutes	45
The meaning of founder' in Statutes	45
The Organs	46
Different names for 'Organs'	46
By-Laws	47
Restraints on 'commercial activity'	47
Foreign lawyers	48
Taxation	48
Taxation of 'domiciliary' firms	48
Varying tax requirements	49
Withholding tax	50
International tax considerations	50

Chapter 6
Foreign Attitudes	51
Private International law	51
The 'place of management' test	52
PIL, Foundations and Establishments	52
Swiss attitudes	53
Liechtenstein PIL	54
International tax evasion	55
The Swiss position	56
The OECD Convention	57
 Chapter 7
The Public Register	58
Ease of registration	58
Filing requirements	59
Standardised documentation	60
The public register as watchdog	60
Public policy	61
Access	62
The public register as arbiter	62
 Chapter 8
The Trustees	63
Legal qualifications	63
Availability of trustees	64
Powers of trustees	64
The trust organisations	66
The 'Big Three'	66
Professional secrecy	68
Trustees as advisers	68
Powers of disposition	69
Organisation of trustees	69
Continuity	70
The client and future trustees	70
Future trustees	71
Foreign trustees	72
The bank trust agreement	72
A Swiss lawyer as trustee	73
Administration by an attorney-in-fact	73
Abuses by attorneys-in-fact	74
Accountability for assets	74

Chapter 9

The Legal System	76
Sources of Liechtenstein law	76
Company law	76
Legal entities - the framework	77
Cross-referencing problems	78
Uncertainty of legal provisions	79
The 1980 revision of the PGR	79
Reactions to the 1980 reform	80
Difficulties of Liechtenstein law	81

Chapter 10

Courts and Litigation	83
The courts	83
Composition of the courts	83
A day in court	84
Heavy case load	84
The law's delay	85
Negligence of trustees cases	86
Trials and the Board	86
Suing in a foreign jurisdiction	87
Arbitration	87

Chapter 11

The Establishment	89
Registration	89
Characteristics	90
The founder's rights	91
Founder's rights and equity	92
Inheritance of founder's rights	93
Identifying the founder	93
Material issues	94
Changing the rules	95
Formation by a Swiss lawyer	95
Founder's rights in court - a case	96
The mandate agreement	98
Tax collection	99
Uses of the Establishment	100
A come-back for Establishments?	101

Chapter 12

The Trust Enterprise	102
Characteristics	102
Settlor's rights	103
Uses of a Trust Enterprise	103
The Trust Enterprise in court - a case	104
Lessons to be learned	107

Chapter 13

The Company Limited by Shares	109
Registration, share capital and shareholders	109
Anonymity	109
Uses of the AG	110

Chapter 14

An Overview of the Foundation	112
Importance of Foundations	112
The clients	113
Tracing the donor	113
The risks of divestment	114
The delusion of control	115
Complex procedures	116
The PGR and the Foundation	117
International tax planning	118

Chapter 15

Banks and Foundations	120
Preference for Foundations	120
The role of banks	121
Banks and company formation	122
Banks as legal advisers	123
Critique of the '10 Reasons'	124
Investment advisers	126

Chapter 16

Specific Attributes of the Foundation	127
Legal definition	127
Formation	128

Fragmented documentation	129
Changing terms of documentation	130
Official controls	131
How a Foundation is presented to clients	131

Chapter 17

The Status of the Founder	133
Terminology	133
Controversial interpretations	134
The founder's rights in jurisprudence	134
Narrowing the founder's options - a case	135
The court and politics of company law	136
The first appeal	137
The second appeal	137
The 'economic' and the 'legal' founder	139
The meaning of the OGH judgments	140
The founder's rights and TRUG	141
The revocation right	142
Amending the Statutes	143
Options on formation	145

Chapter 18

The 'Highest Organ' and Other Organs	146
The highest Organ in law	146
Current practice	147
Commentaries	148
The 'participants' in a Foundation	149
The Legal Representative and the Board	150
Appointments to the Board	150
Specific powers of the Board	152

Chapter 19

The Statutes	155
The standardised Statutes	155
Provisions of Statutes	156
Significance	156
Meaning of the various clauses	157
The Foundation as a separate entity	157
Duration	158

Dissolution	159
Voluntary dissolution	160
Conversion into another entity	161
Founder's rights after conversion	162
Changing situs	163
The Foundation's funds	163
Documenting donations to a Foundation	164
Appointment of auditors	165
The objects clause	165
'Anti-family' Foundations	167
Arbitration	167
Arbitration under Statutes	168
Is an arbitration clause legal?	169

Chapter 20

The By-Laws	172
Authorship	172
The PGR and the Statutes	172
The uses of By-Laws	174
Powers of administration	175
Directions	175
Continuity	176
Complexities	177
By-Laws, beneficiaries and benefits	178
Restraint of beneficiaries	179
Duration	179
Specific constraints	180
Claims by tax authorities	181
Available remedies	182
Boards in internecine strife - a case	182
The judgment of the Landgericht	184
The appeals	185
The appeal to the OGH	186
Conclusions	187

Chapter 21

The Mandate Agreement	189
Legal basis	189
Practical issues	191
Rights of the 'mandator'	192
Termination upon death	194

Chapter 22

Challenging the Foundation	195
The standing of heirs	195
Circumventing succession laws	196
Legitimation of heirs	196
Practical obstacles to a challenge	197
Challenging in a foreign forum	199
Claims of creditors	199
Other grounds for challenge	199

Chapter 23

Trusts	201
The Foundation and Trusts	201
Inappropriate comparisons	201
Risks of common law trusts	202
The UK as a tax haven for Trusts	203
The Liechtenstein Trust	203
Creation	203
Acceptability	204
The deeds	205
Trust Companies as trustees	206
Protection for beneficiaries	207
Powers of administration	207
Powers to remove beneficiaries	208
Remedies	209
Powers of the settlor	210
Accommodation settlors	211
Protectors	211
Situs for foreign trusts	211
Compulsory arbitration	212
Change of situs	212

Chapter 24

White Collar Crime	214
Legal assistance in criminal matters	214
Caseload	215
Comparisons with Switzerland	215
Attitude of foreign authorities	216
Money laundering	216

Tampering with the Foundation	217
The Maxwell affair	217
The CO-OP affair	218
Use of Foundations as a cover	219
Getting the evidence	219
Mail fraud in Denmark	219
Defrauding an estate	221
Conclusions	223

Chapter 25

Literature	224
Promotional publications	224
Scholarly literature	225
Legal commentaries	226
Literature in English	227

Glossary	228
----------	-----

Appendices	231
Appendix 'A' - Statutes	231
Appendix 'A' - By-Laws	236
Appendix 'B' - Statutes	239
Appendix 'B' - By-Laws	248
Appendix 'C' - Statutes	251
Appendix 'C' - By-Laws	255
Appendix 'D' - Statutes	257
Appendix 'D' - By-Laws	261
Appendix 'E'	263
Appendix 'F'	266