

Suspicion of Money Laundering

In the Crossfire of International Due Diligence Obligations

Liechtenstein - Austria - Germany - Switzerland

By Professionals - for Professionals

Hypo Investment Bank (Liechtenstein) AG

Principality of Liechtenstein
Vaduz, January 2006

intersentia

nw

ssenscnanlicner
Verlag

Vienna • Graz 2006

Table of Contents

Editor's Preface.....	13
Foreword.....	17
I. Banks Between Due Diligence and Money Laundering.....	21
A. Combating Money Laundering at the International and European Level.....	23
1. Introduction: What is money laundering, and how does it work?.....	25
1.1. What is understood by "money laundering"?.....	25
1.2. Basic concepts of how money laundering works.	26
1.3. Dimensions of global money laundering and damage.....	28
2. Money laundering in the awareness of state and financial system.....	31
2.1. State measures.....	31
2.2. Supranational developments: major international regulations for combating money laundering.....	33
2.3. Self-imposed obligations of the "Wolfsberg" banks..	43
2.4. Outlook.....	46
3. The currently internationally customary bank measures in the combat against money laundering.....	48
3.1. Obligations of the banks.....	48
3.2. Banks as "police deputies"?.....	50
3.3. The search for the needle in the haystack - which possibly is not even there.....	50

Table of Contents

4. International standards on customer due diligence: from KYC to "politically exposed persons".....	51
4.1. History of the KYC approach / History of PEP regulations.....	52
4.2. The scope of application of regulations concerning PEPs.....	61
4.3. Individual risk benchmarks as a solution?.....	65
5. Practical organisation and form of PEP inspection by institutions.....	66
5.1. Scoring systems for establishing the degree of risk of a transaction or business relationship.....	67
5.2. PEP identification via "blacklists".....	68
5.3. Consequences of PEP identification.....	68
6. Deficiencies and implementation problems when applying inspection programmes.....	69
7. Outlook.....	72
B. Combating Money Laundering in Liechtenstein.....	75
1. Liechtenstein in general.....	77
1.1. History of the Principality of Liechtenstein.....	77
1.2. Liechtenstein's foreign policy.....	79
2. The decisive legal stipulations for combating money laundering in the Principality of Liechtenstein.....	81
2.1. Introduction.....	81
2.2. Criminal law coverage of money laundering in the Principality of Liechtenstein.....	84
2.3. The due diligence act.....	96
3. Legal assistance.....	121

3.1. General.....	121
3.2. Law concerning international legal assistance in criminal cases (legal assistance act (RHG)).....	122
3.3. No legal assistance in fiscal matters.....	135
C. Combating Money Laundering in Austria.....	137
1. Legal context.....	139
1.1. Legal sources.....	139
1.2. Statistics.....	140
1.3. Term of money laundering.....	141
2. §§ 39ff. Austrian banking act (BWG).....	148
2.1. The obligations standardised for banking and financial institutions in §§ 39ff. Austrian banking act (BWG).....	149
2.2. Digression: damage compensation.....	169
2.3. Banking secrecy and data protection.....	173
3. Money laundering in Austrian lawyer regulations (RAO)..	173
3.1. Due diligence obligation „.....“.....	174
3.2. Duties to identify.....	175
3.3. Organisational obligations.....	176
3.4. Duties to report.....	176
3.5. Duties to inform.....	178
3.6. Duties to retain.....	178
3.7. Legal consequences of a breach.....	178
3.8. Damage compensation.....	178
4. Politically exposed persons - PEPs.....	179

D. Combating Money Laundering in Germany.....183

- 1. Legal context / transposition of international measures into national law.....185
 - 1.1. The facts of money laundering.....185
 - 1.2. The German money laundering act (GwG).....191
 - 1.3. Administrative practice: Announcements from the German Federal Financial Supervisory Authority (BaFin).....195
 - 1.4. The Federal Financial Supervisory Authority letter of 10th August 2000 concerning corruption and misappropriation of state assets.....201
 - 1.5. Overlaps with tax laws and so-called "automated account querying".....204
- 2. Sanctions and risks for banking institutions and bank employees.....206
 - 2.1. Risks for banking institutions.....207
 - 2.2. Risks of culpability for acting bank employees.....208
 - 2.3. Criminal law risks for the agents of the bank and the money laundering consultant.....212
- 3. Difficulties when dealing with PEPs in Germany: obligation to contract, data protection and bank secrecy ..215
- 4. Business or not - The tightrope between business interests and the general public interest.....218
- 5. Conclusions: Risk models as decision aids.....220

E. Combating Money Laundering in Switzerland.....223

- 1. About the term.....225
- 2. Evolutionary history.....225

3. Regulation and self-regulation.....	226
4. Success.....	226
5. Legal context.....	227
5.1. Regulations concerning money laundering in the Swiss criminal code (StGB).....	227
5.2. Money laundering act with ordinances.....	228
5.3. Self-regulation.....	232
5.4. International regulations.....	233
6. Practical organisation by institutions.....	234
6.1. Banks.....	234
6.2. Lawyers.....	237
7. Conflicts.....	238
7.1. Banking secrecy.....	238
7.2. Professional secrecy.....	238
7.3. Data protection.....	238
7.4. Legal assistance, particularly in tax matters.....	239
8. Weak points or room to manoeuvre?.....	239
9. A question of reputation.....	240
F. Money Laundering Law and Fundamental Rights.....	243
1. The Council of the European Union.....	245
2. European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms.....	246
3. European Community law.....	250
4. Data protection directive.....	255

Table of Contents

- 5. International organisations.....260
- 6. National fundamental rights guarantees.....260
- 7. Money laundering and fundamental rights.....261
- 8. Legal resources against anti-money laundering.....264
- 9. The duty of discretion of liberal professions.....268
- 10. Closing remarks.....269

II. The "Ivanov" Case Study - In the Crossfire of Due Diligence Obligations.....271

- A. Reputation -The Underestimated Factor.....273
- B. "Boris Ivanov".....281
 - 1. Making contact.....283
 - 2. Red Flags / enhanced due diligence.....284
 - 3. Course of the business relationship / close monitoring.... 286
 - 4. New information / Ivanov's tax problems.....287
- C. Questions to be Analysed.....289
- D. The "Ivanov" Puzzle is Solved.....293
 - 1. "Boris Ivanov" according to Liechtenstein's legal position.....295
 - 2. "Boris Ivanov" according to Austria's legal position.....299
 - 3. "Boris Ivanov" according to Germany's legal position.....302
 - 4. "Boris Ivanov" according to Switzerland's legal position.. 305

5.	Summarising comparison of the solutions.....	308
5.1.	Handling of "privatisation cases".....	308
5.2.	Moment of submitting a suspicious transaction report.....	309
5.3.	Notions concerning corporate liability law.....	310
5.4.	Expression of the bank customer's rights.....	310
5.5.	Conclusion.....	312
E.	A Question of Statistics.....	313
1.	Principality of Liechtenstein.....	315
2.	Austria.....	316
3.	Germany.....	317
4.	Switzerland.....	318
5.	Duty of diligence and success rates.....	320
III.	Russia Undergoing Change - Solutions Required..	325
A.	Amnesty - Bridge to Tax Honesty.....	329
1.	General remarks about the term.....	331
2.	Amnesty on capital - tax amnesty.....	332
2.1.	Germany 2004/05.....	333
2.2.	Italy 2002/03.....	337
3.	Success factors.....	342
4.	Amnesty in Russia?.....	343
4.1.	Capital amnesty.....	344
4.2.	Personal amnesty.....	346

Table of Contents

4.3. Realistic and economic appraisal.....346

4.4. Recommendation.....349

B. Russia's Tax Situation - An Outline of Reforms.....353

C. Tax Chaos: Optimisation, not Maximisation.....359

D. Examples Concerning Capital Flight and Tax Evasion... 365

Closing Remarks.....369

Annexe -Further Sources of Information.....371