

L I E C H T E N S T E I N

Introducing the Global Village

Linking Identity, Reputation, and Communication
MPR4 Research Project Report

Rolf Fehlmann •

Heike Grahlow •

Armin Lutz •

Tanja Passow •

René Schierscher •

FL H 2761 A

Master of Science in Communications Management
University of Lugano

iv. Table of Contents

1. Introduction	1
1.1 Project Scope—Mandate and Research Questions	1
1.2 Premise, Goals, and Approach	1
2. Situation Analysis	2
2.1 General Overview	2
2.2 Liechtenstein's Strategic Position	3
2.3 Stakeholders	4
2.4 State of Knowledge regarding Key Concepts	6
2.5 Conclusions Drawn from the Situation Analysis	8
3. Methodology	9
3.1 Research Approach—Adapting the Concept of Reputation from Company to Country	9
3.2 Fombrun's Three-Stage Model	10
3.3 Stakeholders and Stakeholder Expectations	12
3.4 Nation Branding	12
3.5 Framework of Research Components	13
3.6 Reputation Audit	14
3.7 Identity Audit	16
3.8 Expert Focus Group	18
3.9 Communication and Media Audit	18
4. Diagnosing the Current State	21
4.1 How the Others See Liechtenstein	21
4.2 How Liechtenstein Sees Itself	32
4.3 Liechtenstein's Uniqueness	33
4.4 Gap Analysis—Reputation vs Identity	34
4.5 What Liechtenstein Is Saying about Itself and What Others Are Saying about Liechtenstein	36
4.6 Preliminary Conclusions—Relevant Issues	39
4.7 Defining the Issue-Related Stakeholders	40
5. Designing the Future State	42
5.1 Positioning Liechtenstein	42
5.2 Environment	43
5.3 Strategic Options for Liechtenstein	46
5.4 SWOT Analysis	47
6. Managing the Transition	50
6.1 Strategic Thrust	50
6.2 Dual Strategy	50
6.3 Strategy Selection	51
6.4 Backup Strategy: Liechtenstein's Industrial Production of High-Quality Products	52
6.5 Leveraging the Drivers of Reputation	52
6.6 Reality-Perception Matrix	53
6.7 General Recommendations	54
6.8 Recommendations to Increase Familiarity with Liechtenstein	58
6.9 Recommendations for Issue I—"Financial Sector"	61
6.10 Recommendations for Issue II—"Leadership Appeal"	64
6.11 Epilogue	65
7. References	66