

The Trust in Liechtenstein Law

*A Comparison with its Prototype
the Common Law Trust*

Dr. iur. Klaus Biedermann

Translated into English by Dr. H. Gerald Crossland

The Alvescot Press

Contents

	Foreword by Professor Robert R. Pennington	v
	Table of cases	xvii
	Table of statutes	xxiii
	Translator's note	xxxiv
	Author's note	xxxv
A	Introduction
B	Definition and classification	9
1	Definition of a trust	9
	Preliminary comments	9
1.1	Lord Coke's definition	13
1.2	Definitions that stress the distinction between the legal right of the trustee and the equitable right of the beneficiary	14
1.3	Definitions stressing the obligation of the trustee	18
	Sections 1 to 1.3 in Liechtenstein trust law	20
2	Classification of trusts	22
	Preliminary comments	22
2.1	'Private trust' and 'public' (or 'charitable' trust)	23
2.1.1	'Purpose trusts'	25
	Sections 2 to 2.1.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	28
2.2	'Express trust' and 'trust by operation of law' (or 'constructive trust')	29
2.2.1	'Constructive trust' in the narrow sense	30
2.2.2	'Resulting trust'	36
2.2.3	'Implied trust'	38
	Sections 2.2 to 2.2.3 in Liechtenstein trust law	39
	The private express trust ('die rechtsgeschäftlich zugunsten bestimmter Personen errichtete Treuhänderschaft') in English and Liechtenstein trust law	51
	Preliminary comments relating to the private express trust of English law, the typical trust with foundation characteristics, the atypical trust with contract characteristics, the 'simple' and 'special trust' the functions of the private express trust	51

	Preliminary comments relating to the trust with ascertained or ascertainable beneficiaries and the trust enterprise of Liechtenstein trust law	59
C.I	The rights of the beneficiary under a private express trust in English and Liechtenstein trust law	71
1	The beneficiary's right to ensure proper administration by the trustees Section 1 in Liechtenstein Trust Law	71 74
2	The 'equitable' or 'beneficial interest' as an asset and its various forms	76
2.1	Analogy with the 'estates' in land of the common law	76
2.1.1	The term 'estate'	78
2.1.2	Outline of the types of estates existing in land according to their duration	79
2.1.3	Division of the estate in fee simple so that several persons hold various estates in the same land simultaneously entitling them to successive 'possession and use'	80
2.1.4	Differences between estates as regards contents regardless of the criterion of duration	82
2.1.5	Points common to all estates	86
2.1.5.1	Entitlement of several persons to common and simultaneous possession and use: 'concurrent estates'	86
2.1.5.2	'Vested' and 'contingent estates', 'estates upon condition', 'determinable estates'	87
2.1.6	Independent development of equity in the elaboration of the benefit under a 'use'	89
2.1.6.1	'Executory estates'	89
2.1.6.2	'Power of appointment'	92
2.2	Concluding remarks. Indication of the trustee's powers and duties of administration. 'Discretionary trust'	95
2.2.1	Terminological observations of 'settlement', 'trust' and 'trust settlement'. Reference to the 'trust for sale' and the 'strict settlement' of the Settled Land Act 1925	101 104
2.3	The rule against inalienability and the rule against perpetuities	114
2.3.1	The rule against inalienability. Ways of circumventing it	114

2.3.2	Section 2.3.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	117
	The Rule against perpetuities	123
	Section 2.3.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	129
3	Beneficiaries' claims against the trustee for breach of trust	131
3.1	Liability for damages	131
	Section 3.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	136
3.2	The right to 'follow the trust property'	141
3.2.1	The right to follow the trust property, where there has been an unauthorised conversion of the trust property (without a simultaneous mixing with the trustee's own property)	142
3.2.2	The right to follow, where the trustee mixes trust property with his own property in breach	146
	Sections 3.2.1 and 3.2.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	153
4	Beneficiaries' claims against third persons participating in the trustee's breach of trust	158
5	The trust property or the trustee and/or beneficiary as beneficiaries of the obligations of the trustee or a third person according to section 3 and 4	159
	Section 5 in Liechtenstein trust law	160
C.II	The position of the trustee in English and Liechtenstein trust law	162
	Explanatory comments	162
1	The terms 'ordinary', 'managing' and 'custodian trustee'	162
	Section 1 in Liechtenstein trust law	163
2	The appointment and termination of trusteeship	164
2.1	Appointment	164
2.1.1	The persons entitled to appoint the trustee (including a reference to the conditions for making new appointments during the trust term)	164
	Section 2.1.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	166
2.1.1.1	The appointment of trustees by the court	168
	Section 2.1.1.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	169
2.1.2	The trustee's acceptance of appointment	171
	Section 2.1.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	172
2.1.3	The transfer of title to the trust property to successor or additional trustees	173
	Section 2.1.3 in Liechtenstein trust law	174
2.1.4	Capacity to be trustee	176

	Section 2.1.4 in Liechtenstein trust law	177
2.1.5	The number of trustees	179
	Section 2.1.5 in Liechtenstein trust law	180
2.1.6	The meaning of the equitable maxim 'A trust shall not fail for want of a trustee'	180
	Section 2.1.6 in Liechtenstein trust law	182
2.1.6.1	The Public Trustee	183
	Section 2.1.6.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	184
2.2	Termination of trusteeship	185
2.2.1	Death of the trustee	185
	Section 2.2.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	186
2.2.2	Retirement of the trustee	189
	Section 2.2.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	191
2.2.3	Removal of the trustee	193
	Section 2.2.3 in Liechtenstein trust law	196
3	The powers and duties of trustees in relation to the conduct of the trust	200
	Preliminary comments	200
3.1	The three general duties: the duty of care, the duty of several trustees to act unanimously, the duty of personal performance	202
3.1.1	The duty of care	202
	Section 3.1.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	204
3.1.2	The trustee's duty of personal performance	205
3.1.2.1	The trustee's liability for delegations under sections 23 and 25 of the Trustee Act and section 29 of the Law of Property Act	209
	Sections 3.1.2 and 3.1.2.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	218
3.1.3	The duty of several trustees to act together	227
	Section 3.1.3 in Liechtenstein trust law	228
3.1.3.1	Liability where there are several trustees	228
3.1.3.1.1	External liability towards the beneficiaries	228
3.1.3.1.2	Internal liability inter se	230
	Sections 3.1.3.1 to 3.1.3.1.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	231
3.2	Powers and duties of the trustees with regard to the beneficiaries	234
3.2.1	The fiduciary duty	234
	Section 3.2.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	236
3.2.1.1	Transactions by the trustee in his own favour and dealings between the trustee and the beneficiaries	236
	Section 3.2.1.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	238
3.2.1.2	The duty of the trustee to act gratuitously	241
	Section 3.2.1.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	243
3.2.1.3	Making a profit by virtue of his position as trustee	244
	Section 3.2.1.3 in Liechtenstein trust law	248
3.2.2	The trustee's duties with regard to the keeping of books, the giving of an account and giving information	249

	Section 3.2.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	250
3.2.3	The trustee's duty to treat all beneficiaries equally	255
3.2.3.1	The principle of equality of treatment and investment of trust property	256
3.2.3.1.1	The rule in Howe v. Lord Dartmouth and the duty to convert	257
3.2.3.1.2	Rules of apportionment in consequence of a duty to convert	260
	Sections 3.2.3 to 3.2.3.1.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	261
3.2.4	The powers of maintenance and advancement in sections 31 and 32 of the Trustee Act	262
3.2.4.1	The power of maintenance under section 31 of the Trustee Act	263
	Section 3.2.4.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	266
3.2.4.2	The power of advancement under section 32 of the Trustee Act	266
	Section 3.2.4.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	270
3.3	The trustee's powers and duties in respect of the trust property: trust administration in the technical sense	271
3.3.1	Securing the trust property as it stands	271
	Section 3.3.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	275
3.3.2	Statutory powers in relation to administration of the assets in the technical sense	277
	Section 3.3.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	281
3.3.3	Duties and powers in respect of the investment of trust property	285
	Section 3.3.3 in Liechtenstein trust law	289
3.4	The rights of the trustee	291
3.4.1	The trustee's right of indemnity out of the trust property	291
	Section 3.4.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	295
3.4.2	The trustee's right to a receipt and a discharge on the termination of the trust	301
	Section 3.4.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	301
3.4.3	The trustee's right to pay trust property into court under section 63 of the Trustee Act	303
	Section 3.4.3 in Liechtenstein trust law	304
3.4.4	The trustee's right to the assistance of the court in the conduct of the trust	305
3.5	Defences of a trustee to proceedings for breach of trust by the beneficiaries	306
3.5.1	Total or partial relief by the court under section 61 of the Trustee Act	306
	Section 3.5.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	308
3.5.2	Relief where the beneficiary takes part in or consents to the breach of trust	310
3.5.2.1	The right of recourse under section 62 of the Trustee Act against the beneficiary who has taken part in or consented to the breach of trust	311

	Sections 3.5.2 and 3.5.2.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	313
C.III	The trust and third persons: external effect of a trust	315
1	The trustee as the person in whom the trust property is vested and the legal effect of this with regard to dealings with third persons	315
	Section 1 in Liechtenstein trust law	316
2	The trust property and the trustee's creditors	318
2.1	Basic principle: the trust property is beyond the reach of the trustee's creditors	318
2.1	Exceptions to the basic principle	320
2.2.1	Trust creditor's right to go against the trust property by way of subrogation	320
2.2.2	The application of section 38(c) of the Bankruptcy Act 1914 to trust property on the trustee's bankruptcy	321
	Sections 2.1 to 2.2.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	324
3	Beneficiaries' rights against third persons participating in a breach of trust by the trustee	329
3.1	Participation in a breach of trust by knowingly acquiring trust property transferred in breach of trust	330
3.1.1	The position of a bona fide purchaser of a legal right belonging to the trust transferred in breach	337
3.1.1.1	The 'doctrine of change of position' in American trust law	348
	Sections 3.1 to 3.1.1.1 in Liechtenstein trust law	351
3.2	Participation by a third person in a breach of trust by the trustee other than by acquisition in bad faith of trust property wrongfully transferred	359
	Section 3.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	361
CIV	Creation, termination and variation of the trust	363
1	The creation of a trust	363
1.1	The two basic requirements for the complete creation of a trust	363
1.2	The enforcement of the declaration of creation (incompletely constituted trust) and the meaning of the equitable maxim 'equity will not assist a volunteer'	366

1.2.1	The settlor/beneficiary legal relationship	366
1.2.2	The settlor/trustee legal relationship	368
1.2.3	Digression: construction of contracts for the benefit of third persons as trusts	369
	Sections 1 to 1.2.3 in Liechtenstein trust law	370
1.3	Manifestation of the intention to create a trust	377
1.3.1	Requirements	377
1.3.1.1	Certainty of intention	378
1.3.1.2	Certainty of subject	380
1.3.1.2.1	Property which may be trust property	380
1.3.1.3	Certainty of objects	381
	Sections 1.3 to 1.3.1.3 in Liechtenstein trust law	383
1.3.2	Requirements as to form for the creation of a trust	386
1.3.2.1	For the creation of a trust inter vivos	386
1.3.2.2	For the creation of a trust on death	388
	Sections 1.3.2 to 1.3.2.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	388
1.3.3	Executed and executory trusts	391
	Section 1.3.3 in Liechtenstein trust law	392
1.4	The disposition of the intended trust property	394
1.4.1	The transfer of the intended trust property to a trustee who has already been appointed	394
1.4.2	The declaration of self as trustee	395
	Sections 1.4 to 1.4.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	396
2	Termination of a trust	399
2.1	Termination of a trust in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument	399
2.2	Termination of a trust by the beneficiaries against the trust terms	401
2.3	Termination of a trust by the court	402
2.4	Further conditions for termination	404
	Sections 2 to 2.4 in Liechtenstein trust law	405
3	Variation of a trust	416
3.1	Variation of a trust with the consent of the court	417
3.1.1	Variation of a trust with regard to the administration of the trust property in the technical sense: section 57 of the Trustee Act	417
3.1.2	Variation of the existing beneficial interests; section 1 of the Variation of Trusts Act 1958	419
3.1.3	Certain other statutory provisions relating to deviation from the trust terms with the consent of the court	426
	Sections 3 to 3.1.3 in Liechtenstein trust law	429
C.V	The trust and the court	437
1	The court's functions in connection with a trust, the right to bring an action	437

	Section 1 in Liechtenstein trust law	441
2	Intervention by the court to ensure proper administration and performance	450
2.1	Ad hoc intervention by the court	450
2.1.1	'Determination of questions'	450
2.1.2	Granting of reliefs	453
2.2	Continuous intervention by the court	456
2.2.1	Execution of the trust under the direction of the court	456
2.2.2	Appointment of a 'judicial trustee'	457
	Sections 2 to 2.2.2 in Liechtenstein trust law	458
3	Intervention by the court in respect of liability on the part of a trustee	466
4	Other ad hoc intervention by the court in the exercise of a supervisory function	467
	Addendum	469
1	The revision of the PGR dated 15 April 1980: antecedents and rapid implementation of amendments	470
2	The amendment of PGR Arts. 897 et seq. (the trust) by the general revision dated 15 April 1980	470
2.1	The articles amended by the revision: a list and criticism thereof	471
2.2	Main points of the revision: writing as a requirement for validity, duty to register, need for a Liechtenstein trustee	474
2.2.1	The requirement of writing as a matter of validity	476
2.2.2	The requirement of registration	477
2.2.2.1	A conceptually untenable exception	478
2.2.3	The requirement of a Liechtenstein trustee	480
2.3	Concluding observations	480
3	The amendment of TrUG paras 1 et seq. (the trust enterprise) by the general revision dated 15 April 1980	482
3.1	The paragraphs amended by the revision: a list and criticism thereof	482
3.2	Main points of the revision: registration of a trust enterprise as a constitutive requirement and necessity of a control authority for a trust enterprise carrying on business in a commercial manner	484
3.3	Concluding observations	486

Contents

xv

Sources	486
Bibliography	487
Note on abbreviations and citations	496
Abbreviations	497
Index	498