

Michael Wollenschlager (ed.)

Asylum amid Dmrittegratoom)

Integration of Recognized Refugee Families as Defined by the Geneva Convention Considering their Status with the Respect to the Law of Residence

1H111

BWV • BERLINER WISSENSCHAFTS-VERLAG GmbH

Table of Contents	5
Introduction and Foreword	17
Part 1: Integration Standards in International Law	25
A. The Basis of Refugee Status	25
I. Recognition	25
1. Inclusion	25
2. Exclusion	26
II. Cessation	26
1. UNHCR Cessation Practice	28
a. Practice Survey	28
b. Conclusions	33
2. State Cessation Practice	34
a. Case Study/Practice Survey	35
b. Conclusions	37
3. Normative Interpretation of the "Ceased Circumstances Clause"	37
a. No limitation of "Circumstances" to an Individual Alternative of well-founded Fear	37
b. General Situation and Individual Circumstances	38
c. Profoundness and Durability of Change	42
d. The Exception Clauses	43
4. Probability of Cessation	45
5. Consequences of Cessation - The Emerging Protection of Integrated Life	46
a. Domestic, Alien and Citizenship Law and State Discretion	47
b. International Obligations	47
• (1) The Origins of the Emerging Protection Regime	48
(2) The Substance of the Emerging Protection Regime: Integrated Life	48
(3) General Dogmatic Considerations	49
(4) The Emerging European Right to Protection of "Integrated Life"	50
(a) Protection of "Integrated Life" with respect to Family Life	50
(b) Protection of "Integrated Life" with respect to Private Life	52
(5) The Emerging Universal Right to Protection of "Integrated Life"	53
(a) Protection of "Integrated Life" with respect to Family Life	53
(b) Protection of "Integrated Life" with respect to the Right to Enter One's Own Country	54
c. European Union Obligations	56
(1) Proposed Protection for Refugees who are Long-term Residents	56
(2) Associative Protection for Turkish Refugee Families	58

6. Conclusions	58
B.. International Integration Standards for Refugees	59
I. General Equal Treatment	61
1. General Equal Treatment under the Geneva Refugee Convention	62
2. Equal Treatment under General Human Rights	64
3. International Alien Law	65
4. European Union Law	66
a. Equal Treatment under the EU Refugee Status	66
b. Equal Treatment under the EU Long-term Resident Status	66
c. The EU Anti-Discrimination Directives	66
II. Freedom of Movement and Settlement	67
1. The Conflicting Interests	69
2. The Given Freedom and its Restrictions	69
3. Travel Documents and Visa Exemptions	70
4. The European Union Law	71
a. Freedom of Movement as a Refugee	71
b. Freedom of Movement as a Resident Permit Holder	71
c. Freedom of Movement as a Long-term Resident	72
III. Religious Freedom	72
1. The Generosity and Insufficiency of the Refugee Convention	73
2. Complementary Human Rights Protection	73
IV. Labour and Economic Rights	74
1. The Refugee Convention's Labour Regime	76
2. The Complementary Human Rights Labour Regime	79
3. European Union Law	80
a. The European Association Labour Regime with Turkey	80
b. The Labour Regime for EU Refugees	80
c. The Labour Regime for Third Country Nationals as EU Long-term Residents, Employed or Self-Employed Persons	80
V. Social Welfare Rights	81
1. The Refugee Convention's Social Welfare Regime	84
2. The Complementary Human Rights Social Welfare Regime	85
3. The Specific Provisions for the Rights of the Child	85
4. European Union Law	86
a. Specific Provisions for Turkish Refugee Families	86
b. The Right to Social Welfare as an EU Refugee	86
c. The Right to Social Welfare as an EU Long-term Resident	86
VI. Educational and Cultural Rights	86
1. The Refugee's Right to Education according to the Geneva Convention	88
2. Complementary Human Rights Standards in Education	89
3. Special Educational Rights of Refugee Children	89
4. European Union Law	89
a. Educational Rights as an EU Refugee	89
b. Educational Rights as an EU Long-term Resident	89
VII. Freedom of Association, Assembly and Political Participation	90
1. The Rights according to Refugee Law	92
2. The Rights according to Human Rights Guarantees	92
3. The Rights according to EU Law	93
VIII. Naturalisation	93
1. Facilitation of Naturalisation according to the Geneva Convention	94

2. The Right to Nationality according to Universal Human Rights	95
3. The Convention on the Rights of the Child	97
4. The Convention on the Reduction of Statelessness	97
IX. Family Union	98
1. Universal Protection of Family and Private Life	99
2. The European Protection of Family and Private Life	100
a. The Concept of Family	100
b. Interference and the "Elsewhere Approach"	101
c. Restrictions and the Balancing of Interests	102
3. The Child's Special Rights to Family Protection	103
4. European Union Family Protection	104
a. Specific Protection for Turkish Refugees	104
b. Proposals for a Council Directive on Family Reunification	104

Part 2: The Need for Reforming the Integration Politics 107

A. Course of the Study	107
B. Country Surveys	109

I. Austria 109

1. State of Integration	109
a. Legal Status	109
(1) Foundations of the Refugee Status	109
(a) Introductory Remarks on Austrian Refugee Protection in General	109
(b) Recognition	111
(aa) Independent Recognition (material and formal qualifications, statistical data)	114
(aaa) Asylum stemming from an Asylum application (§ 7 AsylG 1997)	114
(bbb) Asylum ex officio (§ 9 AsylG 1997)	115
(bb) Recognition as Family Member of a Refugee	116
(c) Non-Refoulement and Legal Residence Status	117
(d) Loss of Refugee Status	117
(aa) Cessation Alternatives	117
(bb) Cessation Consequences	118
(2) Integration based Legal Status	118
(a) General Equal Treatment	118
(b) Freedom of Movement and Establishment	119
(aa) International Freedom of Movement	119
(bb) Freedom of Movement within the Country of Residence.	119
(c) Freedom of Religion	119
(d) Access to the Labour Market and Economic Rights	120
(aa) Dependent Employment	120
(bb) Independent (Self-) Employment	120
(cc) Free Professions	121
(e) Social Security	122
(aa) Social Insurance	122
(aaa) Health Insurance	122"
(bbb) Accident Insurance	122

(ccc) Pension Insurance	123
(ddd) Unemployment Insurance	123
(bb) Social Benefits	125
(aaa) Social Support ~	125
(bbb) Family Allowance	126
(ccc) Integration Aid for Refugees, especially the Refugees Integration Fonds (Fund)	127
(f) Educational and Cultural Rights	127
(aa) Kindergarten	127
(bb) Schools	128
(cc) Higher Education	128
(g) Freedom of Association, Assembly and Political Participation	130
(h) Naturalisation	130
(i) Family Union	132
b. Empirical State of Integration	133
(1) Secondary Research	133
(a) Language Acquisition and Education as Integration Factors	134
(b) Children and Schooling	134
(c) Female Convention Refugees	135
(d) Employment as an Integration Factor	135
(e) Accommodation as an Integration Factor	136
(f) Integration Support	136
(g) Social Security, Health Care, Personal Welfare	137
(h) Contributions to' Integration Support	137
(i) Concluding Remarks .	138
ANNEX: Table 1: Residential Population of Austria and Vienna in 2001	138
Table 2: Asylum Applications 1985-2000	139
(2) Primary Research (Questionnaire)	139
(a) Introduction	139
(b) Socio-demographic Data	140
(c) Obtention of Asylum and Language Learning	140
(d) Spouses and Children	141
(e) Employment	142.
(f) Accommodation	142
(g) Factors Assisting Integration	143
(h) Leisure	143
(i) Personal Welfare	143
(j) Concluding Thoughts	144
2. Integration.Related Aims	144
a. Aims of the Refugee Families	144
b. Aims of the Host Society	144
c. Weighing and Balancing the Aims	146
II. Germany	149
1. State of Integration	149
a. Legal Status	149
(1) Essentials of the Refugee Status	149
(a) Introductory Remarks to German Refugee Protection — in General	149

(aa) Current Position of the Law	A	149
(bb) Changes by way of the planned Immigration Act		150
(b) Recognition		151
(aa) Autonomous Recognition		151
(bb) Recognition as a Family Member		151
(cc) Recognition as a Family Member with regard to the planned Immigration Act		154
(c) Non-Refoulement and Legal Residence Status		154
(aa) Current Position of the Law		154
(bb) Position of the Law with regard to the - planned immigration Act		155
(d) Cessation		155
(aa) Cessation Alternatives		155
(aaa) Termination		155
(bbb) Withdrawal		156
(bb) Changed Circumstance Clause		156
(aaa) Change of Circumstances in the Country of Origin		157
(bbb) Probability Prognosis regarding the Danger of Persecution in the State of Origin		159
(ccc) Unreasonableness of Return		160
(ddd) Procedure and Figures		160
(eee) Conclusion		162
(ff) Changes in accordance with the planned Immigration Act		162
(cc) Cessation Consequences		164
(dd) Cessation Consequences with regard to the planned Immigration Act		166
(2) Integration related Legal Status		168
(a) General Equal Treatment		168
(b) Freedom of Movement and Settlement		169
(aa) International		169
(bb) Within Germany		169
(c) Religious Freedom		170
(d) Labour and Economic Rights		171
(aa) Employment		172
(aaa) Persons having been granted Asylum		172
(bbb) Convention-Refugees (§51 par. 1 AuslG)		173
(ccc) Contingent-Refugees		173
(bb) Self-Employment		173
(cc) Freelance		174
(dd) Job-Creation Scheme and Structural Scheme		174
(ee) Vocational Training		175
(aaa) Grants for Vocational Training and Job-preparing Measures		175
(bbb) Other Measures supporting Vocational Training		175
(ff) Measures supporting further Vocational Training		175
(e) Social Welfare Rights		176
(aa) Social insurance		176
(aaa) Health insurance		177

(bbb) Nursing Care insurance	177
(ccc) Unemployment insurance and • Job-seeker's allowance	178
(ddd) Accident insurance	179
(eee) Pension scheme	180
(bb) Social Welfare	181
(cc) Child allowance	182
(aaa) Child allowance pursuant to Tax Laws	182
(bbb) Child allowance pursuant to the BKGG	183
(dd) Child Raising allowance	184
(ee) Integration Aids, particularly Linguistic Support	185
(aaa) Support by the Employment Office	185
(bbb) Support with means of the Garantiefonds	186
(ccc) Special Support of Contingent-Refugees from the Otto-Benecke-Stiftung (Trust)	187
(ddd) Linguistic Support pursuant to the Immigration Act.	187
(ff) Housing Subsidy and Housing-Legitimacy- Certificate	187
(f) Educational and Cultural Rights.	188
(aa) Kindergarten	•188
(bb) School	189
(cc) University/College Education	189
(dd) Educational Grants	190
(g) Freedom of Association, Assembly and Political Participation	190
(h) Naturalisation	191
(aa) Entitlement to become Naturalised	191
(bb) Discretionary Naturalisation	192
(i) Family Union	193
(aa) Persons having been granted Asylum	193
(bb) Convention-Refugees (§ 51 par. 1 AuslG)	193
(cc) Contingent-Refugees	194
ANNEX: Asylum applications since 1990	195
b. Empirical State of Integration	197
(1) Secondary Research	•197
(a) Formulation	197
(b) Definitions	197
(c) Selection of interviewees, survey tools and approach of the interviewers during the course of survey	197
(d) Hypothesis discussion	198
(aa) Thesis 1: The refugee status has an effect upon the integration of the refugee and his relatives	198
(aaa) Language competence	•198
(bbb) Integration in the job market	200
(ccc) Housing	201
(ddd) Leisure time, occupation and use of leisure facilities	•201
(eee) Recourse to assistance	202
(fff) Digression: Integration of the interviewees' children	202

(bb) Thesis 2: The possibility of revocation of refugee and resident status following the review of the German Immigration Act, does not affect the refugees' willingness to integrate	203
(cc) Conclusion	204
(5) Primary Research (Questionnaire)	204
(a) Introduction	204
(b) Integration indicator Language	205
(aa) Language Competence of the Immigrant	206
(bb) Consequences of insufficient Language Proficiency	207
(cc) Language Promotion for Adults and Youths beyond School age	208
(dd) Language Promotion in Nursery Schools	209
(ee) Language Promotion in Schools	210
(c) Integration indicator Education	211
(aa) Integration instrument Nursery School	213
(bb) Integration instrument School	214
(cc) Integration instrument Vocational Training	216
(d) Integration indicator Job Market	218
(aa) Employment	218
(aaa) Social Insurance contributing Employment	218
(bbb) Part-time Employment	219
(ccc) Self-Employment	219
j (ddd) Position in Occupation	219
(eee) Employment according to Industrial Areas	220
(bb) Unemployment	220
(aaa) Job Market Structure	221
(bbb) Job Market situation of Refugees	222
(cc) Qualification Measures	223
(dd) Economic Situation	223
(aaa) Income	223
(bbb) Regarding social Aid and Poverty	224
(e) Integration indicator Housing	224
(f) Integration indicator Leisure time occupation and acceptance of Help Offers	226
2. Integration related Aims	231
a. Aims of the Refugee Families	231
b. Aims of the Refugee Society	232
c. Weighing and Balancing" of the Aims	234
III. Italy	235
1. State of Integration	235
a. Legal Status	235
(1) Essentials of the Refugee Status	235
(a) Introductory Remarks to Italian Refugee Protection in General	235
(b) Recognition	240
(aa) Autonomous Recognition	240
(bb) Family Reunification	242
(c) Non-Refoulement	243
(d) Cessation Clauses	243

(aa) Cessation Alternatives	243
(bb) Cessation Consequences	244
(2) Integration Related Legal Status	245
(a) General Equal Treatment	246
(b) Freedom of Movement and Settlement	246
(c) Religious Freedom	247
(d) Labour and Economic Rights	248
(aa) Fiscal Charges	249
(bb) Property, Copyright and Trade Protection Laws	249
(cc) Housing	250
(e) Social Welfare Rights	251
(f) Educational and Cultural Rights	253
(g) Freedom of Association, Assembly and Political Participation	255
(h) Family Union	256
(i) Nationalisation	256
(j) Access to Courts and Legal Assistance	257
b. Empirical State of Integration	259
(1) Secondary Research	259
Table No. 1: Demographic Balance of Resident Foreigners (Years. 1996-2000)	259
Table No. 2: Demographic Indicator of Resident Foreigners (Years 1996-2000)	259
Table No. 3: Resident Foreigners for Geographic Area	260
(2) Questionnaire	265
(a) Introduction	265
(b) Methodology	265
(c) General Characteristics of the Interviewed	265
(d) Citizenship	266
(e) Family Status	266
(f) Accommodation	266
(g) Employment Status	267
(h) Free Time	267
(i) Information	268
(j) Language	268
(k) Relation with Italian Society	268
(l) Hopes and Wishes	268
2. Additional Recommendations for further Readings	269
ANNEX: Table No. 1: Statistical Data concerning Refugees in Italy	270
Table No. 2: Statistical Data concerning the Application of the Dublin Convention in Italy	270
Table No. 3: Requests for taking Charge lodged to Italy by the Contracting States of the Dublin Convention	271
Table No. 4: Residence Permits for Reasons of the Presence, for Geographic Division	272
Table No. 5: Residence Permits arranged according to the Presence, Geographic Area and Main Countries of Citizenship, for sex	273
- Table No. 6: Reasons for Residence Permits	274
Table No. 7: Reasons for Residence Permits relating to Geographical Area	275

IV. Netherlands	281
1. State of Integration	281
a. Legal Status	281
(1) Essentials of the Refugee Status	281
(a) Introductory Remarks to the Netherlands Refugee Protection in General	281
(b) Recognition	286
(aa) Statistics (Autonomous Recognition)	287
(bb) Recognition of Family Members.	289
(c) Non-Refoulement and Legal Residence Status	290
(d) Cessation	291
(aa) Cessation Alternatives	291
(bb) Cessation Consequences	291
(2) Integration Related Legal Status	292
(a) General Equal Treatment	298
(b) Freedom of Movement and Settlement	299
(c) Religious Freedom	300
(d) Labour and Economic Rights	300
. (aa) The Act WIN (wet inburgering nieuwkomers)	301
(aaa) Introduction	301
(bbb) Aim and Background of Integration of Newcomers Act	301
(ccc) Bearing Surface and Division of Responsibilities	302
(ddd) Target Group	302
(eee) Application and (Temporary) Exemption	302
(fff) Integration Inquiry	303
(ggg) Educational Section of the Integration Programme	303
(hhh) Other Sections of the Integration Programme	304
(iii) Referral and Conclusion with Certificate	305
. (jjj) Enforcement, Sanctions and Fines	305
(kkk) Work and Integration	305
(111) Funding	306
(mmm) Support Structure	307
(bb) The Act SAMEN (Wet Stimuleren Arbeidsdeelname Minderheden 1998)	307
(e) Social Welfare Rights	308
(f) Educational and Cultural Rights	308
(aa) Education	308
(bb) Cultural Rights	309
(g) Freedom of Association, Assembly and Political Participation	309
(h) Naturalisation	310
(i) Family Union	311
(j) Miscellaneous	314
b. Empirical State of Integration	314
(1) Secondary Research	314

(2) Primary Research/Questionnaire	316
2. Integration Related Aims	327
a. Aims of Families	327
b. Aims of Refugee Society	327
c. Weighing and Balancing of Aims	327
(1) The Netherlands as Immigration Society	328
(2) Immigration and Admissions Policy	328
• (3) Social Participation and Integration Policy	329
(4) The Socio-cultural Dimension	330
(5) The Dutch Social State	330
(6) The Role of Government	331
ANNEX: 1. The Dutch Approach to the Implementation of the art. 13 Directives	333
2. The Dutch Equal Treatment Legislation	333
3. Age and Disability: Legislative Initiatives	337
4. Age Discrimination - in General	339
V. United Kingdom	345
1. Refugee Integration - an Overview	345
a. Legal Status	345
(1) Essentials of the Refugee Status	345
(a) Introduction	345
(b) Incorporation of the Convention in Domestic Law	345
(c) Statuses	346
(d) Recognition	346
(e) Non-Refoulement and Legal Residence Status	348
(f) Cessation of Status	348
(2) Integration in the UK - the Legal Framework	348
(a) General Equal Treatment	349
(aa) Education	352
(bb) Employment and Recruitment	352
(cc) Housing	353
(dd) Clubs	353
(ee).Race Relations	353
(b) Freedom of Movement and Settlement	354
(c) Religious Freedom	354
(d) Labour and Economic Rights	355
(e) Social Welfare Rights	355
(aa) Benefits	355
(bb) Health	355
(cc) Housing	356
(f) Educational and Cultural Rights	356
(g) Freedom of Association, Assembly and Political Participation	357
(h) Naturalisation	359
(i) Family Union	360
b. Empirical State of Integration	361
(1) Secondary Research	361
(2) The Questionnaire	364
(a) Introduction	364
(b) Aims of the Questionnaire	364

(c) Methodology	365
(d) Characteristics of the Sample	365
(e) Part One of the Questionnaire	366
(aa) Countries of Origin	366
(bb) Age range of the Principal Respondents	366
(cc) Length of Residence in UK	366
(dd) Citizenship	367
(ee) Family Reunion	367
(ff) Conclusions to Part One of the Questionnaire	368
(f) Part Two and Three of the Questionnaire	368
(aa) English Language Courses and the Language Proficiency of the Parents	368
(bb) The Experience of Refugee Children	369
(cc) Number of Children per Household	369
(dd) Education	370
(ee) Friendships with English Children and Attendance at English Clubs and Associations	370
(ff) Conclusions to Part Two and Three of the Questionnaire	371
(g) Part Four of the Questionnaire	371
(aa) Accommodation	371
(bb) The number of People living in the House or Flat	371
(cc) The number of Children with their own Room	371
(dd) Overcrowding and Cultural Factors in Accommodation	372
(ee) Other Problems with Accommodation	372
(ff) Neighbourhoods and Refugee Communities	372
(gg) Conclusions to Part Four of the Questionnaire	373
(h) Part Five of the Questionnaire	373
(aa) Employment and Training	373
(bb) Employment Status and Benefits	373
(cc) Use of Previous Qualifications	374
(dd) Barriers to Employment	374
(ee) Training	374
(ff) Seeking Advice	375
(gg) Conclusions to Part Five of the Questionnaire	375
(i) Part Six of the Questionnaire	375
(aa) Leisure Time and Social Participation	375
(bb) Reading Newspapers and following News on TV	376
(cc) Interaction with the Local Community	376
(dd) Conclusions to Part Six of the Questionnaire	376
(j) Part Seven of the Questionnaire	376
(k) Conclusions	377
2. Integration - Policy and Practice	379
a. Refugee Perspectives on Integration	379
b. Government Policy on Refugee Integration	379
c. Weighing and Balancing of Aims	385

Part 3: Proposals for a Reform of Integration Law and Politics	387
A. Reform of National Integration Law and Politics	387
I. Austria	387
II. Germany	388
• 1. Reform of the Law	388
a. Reform of the Legal Status	389
b. Strengthening Family Unity	390
c. Adjustment of specific integration measures	391
2. Insufficiencies of a National Reform	392
III. Italy	392
IV. Netherlands	394
1. General	394
2. Need of Reform as Discrepancy between Empirical State and Balanced Aims regarding Integration	395
3. The Netherlands	396
4. European Initiatives	397
a. Demography	397
b. Type of Economy	397
c. Schooling and Skills	398
d. Available Workforce	398
e. Geographic Mobility	398
f. Social Mobility	398
V. United Kingdom	399
B. Reform of the International Integration Law	404
C. Insufficiencies of the Law	406