

THE CHANGING FACE OF EUROPE POPULATION FLOWS IN THE 20TH CENTURY

Biilent Kaya

Swiss Forum for Migration and Population Studies
Neuchatel, Switzerland

Translated from the French by Margaret Campbell and Christopher Reynolds
English Translation Department, Council of Europe

Project "Learning and teaching about the history of Europe in the 20th century"

European Cultural Convention

Council of Europe Publishing

CONTENTS

	Page
Foreword	9
Reader's guide	11
Chapter 1 - Migration in the 20th century: a brief history	15
Migration during and after the first world war.....	15
Migration from the second world war to 1973.....	19
Migration since 1973.....	21
Further reading.....	24
Chapter 2 — Types of migration: why do people migrate?	25
Introduction.....	25
Migration connected with the colonisation and decolonisation of the Third World.....	25
"Ethnic" migration.....	26
Economic migration.....	28
Forced migration.....	29
Migration resulting from globalisation: modern nomadism.....	31
Further reading.....	33
Chapter 3 - Europe and its immigrants	35
Introduction.....	35
Integrating immigrants: a major challenge for host communities.....	36
Naturalisation in Europe.....	41
Racism and discrimination.....	44
Further reading.....	48
Chapter 4 - Migration and host countries: the benefits	51
Demographic impact.....	51
Economic impact.....	59
Social and cultural impact: growing cultural diversity.....	64
Effects on school life: schools and the challenge of cultural and linguistic diversity.....	66
Multilingualism: an educational asset in the modern world.....	69
Further reading.....	70

Chapter 5 - Migration and home countries	73
Introduction.....	73
How immigrants contribute to the social and economic development of home countries.....	73
Further reading.....	77
Appendix I: Glossary and websites	79
Appendix II: Suggested activities and resources for classroom use	83