

Markus Schwaninger

Intelligent Organizations

Powerful Models for Systemic Management

Second Edition

Springer

Contents

1	Organizational Intelligence in Systemic Terms.....	1
1.1	The Need for Organizational Innovation.....	1
1.2	An Innovative View of Organizations.....	2
1.3	Related Streams of Inquiry.....	6
1.4	What Makes an Organization Intelligent?.....	7
1.5	Purpose and Scope of this Book.....	8
2	Complexity and Understanding	11
2.1	Two Crucial Concepts: Complexity and Variety	11
2.2	Ashby's Law of Requisite Variety	14
2.3	The Conant-Ashby Theorem: Models are Crucial	20
3	Management – A Distributed Function.....	23
3.1	On Leadership and Management.....	23
3.2	On Control Loops	25
3.3	Control Versus Pre-control.....	28
3.4	Extrinsic Versus Intrinsic Control	28
3.5	Hierarchy Versus Heterarchy	29
3.6	Distributed Management	32
4	Intelligent Organization – A Systemic Framework.....	35
4.1	Postulates	35
4.2	Introducing the Framework	36
4.3	Dimensions of the Framework	38
4.4	Theoretical Models to Enhance Organizational Intelligence	42
4.5	Relationships Between the Models	43
5	Activities: What the Organization Does.....	47
5.1	The Model of Systemic Control (MSC).....	48
5.2	Operative Level	51
5.2.1	Profit and Liquidity	51
5.2.2	Creating and Delivering Value.....	52
5.3	Strategic Level.....	53
5.3.1	Existing Versus New Value Potentials	55
5.3.2	Strategic Business Unit Versus Whole Firm.....	58
5.3.3	Core Competencies	61
5.3.4	The Linkage Between Strategy and Profit Revisited.....	63

5.4	The Normative Level.....	64
5.4.1	Viability.....	64
5.4.2	Beyond Viability	65
5.5	Relationships Between the Three Levels	67
5.6	Criteria of Systemic Effectiveness	69
5.7	Insights Based on the Model of Systemic Control	71
5.8	Revisiting the Feedback Cycle	75
5.9	An Application Perspective	76
5.10	Intermediate Summary and Outlook	79
6	Structure – Preconditions for Effective Action	83
6.1	The Viable System Model (VSM).....	83
6.2	On Recursive Organization Design	86
6.3	Recursion and Heterarchy	90
6.4	Embodiments of Recursive Management.....	90
6.5	Virtual Organizations as Viable Systems	91
6.6	Networks as Viable Systems	94
6.7	Networks of Viable Systems	97
6.8	Viable Systems: Hierarchy, Heterarchy or Both?	100
6.9	Criticisms and Beyond.....	102
6.10	Autonomous Agents in Viable Organizations.....	103
6.11	An Application Perspective.....	105
6.12	Intermediate Summary and Outlook	107
7	Behaviour – The Control of Cognition and Emotion.....	109
7.1	Behaviour in and of Organizations.....	110
7.2	Participation and Authority – Social Behaviour for Complexity Absorption	114
7.3	The Team Syntegrity Model (TSM) – An Architecture for Large Groups.....	115
7.4	The Team Syntegrity Process	119
7.5	Applications.....	120
7.6	Case Study: A Collaborative Global Research Project	121
7.6.1	Purpose	121
7.6.2	Design of Project.....	121
7.6.3	The Process	122
7.6.4	Results	124
7.6.5	Some Insights	125
7.7	Further Empirical Evidence.....	128
7.8	Outlook	130
8	Ethos and Identity: Basic Parameters of Organizations	133
8.1	Organizational Ethos	134
8.1.1	Change Versus Timelessness	135
8.1.2	Normative Management: Ethical and Esthetical Imperatives.....	136

8.1.2.1	Ethics	137
8.1.2.2	Esthetics	138
8.1.3	Task and Responsibility of the Firm	138
8.1.4	After all, What is Good and What is Bad?.....	142
8.1.5	Orientation, Explicitness and Reflection	146
8.2	Organizational Identity	147
8.3	Theory of the Firm.....	149
8.4	Some Empirical Evidence	152
8.5	Immoral Organizations	157
8.5.1	Are all Viable Organizations Intelligent?	157
8.5.2	Are all Virtuous Organizations Intelligent?	158
8.5.3	Are all Non-Viable organizations also Non-Intelligent?	158
8.6	More Empirical Evidence	159
8.6.1	Ideal-Type More of the Same	160
8.6.2	Ideal-Type Disrespect of Heritage	160
8.6.3	Ideal-Type Greed to Corruption.....	160
8.7	Immoral Actors in Organizations	162
8.8	Intermediate Summary and Outlook	163
9	Time and Organizational Dynamics	167
9.1	Transformation Over Time.....	168
9.2	A Practical Example	169
9.3	Lessons from Computer Simulations	170
9.4	Intermediate Summary	178
10	The Framework Revisited	181
10.1	Systemic Features.....	181
10.2	Organizational Principles in the Framework.....	183
10.2.1	Activities	183
10.2.2	Structure	183
10.2.3	Behaviour	184
10.2.4	Basic Parameters	184
10.2.5	Time	184
10.3	An Integrative View of the Dimensions and Models.....	185
10.4	Change and the Fundamental Parameters Revisited.....	189
10.5	Applications of the Framework.....	191
10.5.1	Case 1	192
10.5.2	Case 2	193
10.5.3	Reflection	193
10.5.4	Case 3	194
10.5.5	Case 4	197
10.5.6	Reflection	198
10.6	Relevant Empirical Work by Other Authors	199
10.7	Intermediate Summary and Outlook	200

11 Outlook: The Way Ahead	203
Appendix.....	207
Reference.....	211
Index.....	231