

The Global Built Environment as a Representation of Realities

Why and How Architecture Should Be Subject of Worldwide Comparison

Edited by Aart Mekking and Eric Roose

*With contributions by En-Yu Huang, Aart Mekking, Elena
Paskaleva and Eric Roose*

HOCHSCHULE
LIECHTENSTEIN

Bibliothek

Pallas Publications

Contents

Introduction

- Breaking Boundaries: Towards a Global Theory of Architectural Representation 7
Eric Roose

Chapter 1

- The Architectural Representation of Reality: The Built Environment as the Materialization of a Mental Construct 23
Aart Mekking

Chapter 2

- The Architectural Representation of Islam: Sainly Brilliance in the New Design for the Amsterdam Taibah Mosque 51
Eric Roose

Chapter 3

- The Architectural Representation of Paradise: Sufi Cosmology and the Four-Iwan Plan 95
Elena Paskaleva

Chapter 4

- The Architectural Representation of Taboo: Toilet Taboos as Guardians of Old Taiwanese Representations of Family Life 141
En-Yu Huang

Chapter 5

- The Architectural Representation of Diversity: Changing Scopes to Meet Changing Realities in The Hague's Transvaal Neighbourhood 173
Aart Mekking

- List of Contributors 207

- Classified Index 209