

GOLD AND IRON

Bismarck, Bleichroder, and the Building
of the German Empire

FRITZ STERN

Alfred A. Knopf New York

1977

CONTENTS

	Guide to Abbreviations	xiii
	Introduction	xv
Part One	The Hazardous Rise, 1859-1871
1	First Encounter: Junker and Jew	3
2	Bismarck's Struggle for Survival	20
3	Between the Throne and the Gallows	48
4	A Banker's Share in Bismarck's Triumph	81
5	Bismarck's Purse and Bleichroder's Place	96
6	The Third War	121
7	Hubris in Versailles	145
Part Two	Banker for an Empire
3	A New Baron in a New Berlin	159
9	Imperial Style in Politics and Economics	176
10	Greed and Intrigue	226
11	The Fourth Estate	262
12	The Prince Enriched	280
13	The World of Banking and Diplomacy	304
14	Rumania: The Triumph of Expediency	351
15	The Reluctant Colonialist	394
16	The Fall of Bismarck	436

Contents

Part Three The Anguish of Assimilation

17	The Jew as Patriotic Parvenu	461
18	The Hostage of the New Anti-Semitism	494
19	The Embittered End	532
	Epilogue. The Fall of a Family	542
	Notes	551
	Acknowledgments	597
	Bibliography	601
	Index	603