

Palazzo Rubens The Master as Architect

BARBARA UPPENKAMP | BEN VAN BENEDEN

with a contribution by Piet Lombaerde

Rubenshuis, Antwerp | Mercatorfonds

Preface	6
Introduction: Rubens and Architecture BEN VAN BENEDEN	8
'La vera simmetria'. Rubens's Italian Examples BARBARA UPPINKAMP · BEN VAN BENEDEN	34	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Raphael's Palazzo Branconio: the palazzetto as a model 36</li> <li>• The Palazzo Farnese as an academy 38</li> <li>• Architecture as an environment for antique sculpture: the Palazzo Mattei 41</li> <li>• Rubens's Juiccate 43</li> <li>• The Villa Aldobrandini in Frascati and the Villa Giulia in Rome 45</li> <li>• Sebastiano Serlio, Giudio Romano and the theory of rustication 47</li> <li>• Michelangelo and the Porta Pia 55</li> <li>• Powerful and masculine: the Dominican order 62</li> <li>• Rubens's Serlian garden pavilion 66</li> <li>• Dignity and relief 74</li> </ul>
Rubens and Architectural Symbolism BARBARA UPPINKAMP · BEN VAN BENEDEN	76	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Mercury and Minerva 76</li> <li>• Hercules 80</li> <li>• Satyrs 86</li> <li>• Dolphins 91</li> <li>• Juvenal 92</li> <li>• Eagles 93</li> <li>• Garlands 96</li> <li>• The shell-shaped niche and the bust of Minerva 100</li> <li>• Sphere and cube 102</li> <li>• Keystone 104</li> <li>• Bucrania 106</li> <li>• Ram's heads 107</li> <li>• The decoration of the façade of the studio 110</li> <li>• Perseus and Andromeda 113</li> <li>• The garden as 'dieta' 117</li> <li>• Bacchus and Ceres 121</li> <li>• Conclusion 122</li> </ul>
Rubens the Architect PIET LOMBAERDE	124	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Rubens and the Vitruvian theory of architecture 126</li> <li>• Rubens's architectural drawings and sketchbooks 128</li> <li>• Rubens and his architectural library 130</li> <li>• 'Palazzi di Genova' 132</li> <li>• Rubens's aesthetic architectural vocabulary 138</li> <li>• Rubens, Egnatio Danti and Franciscus Aguilonius: perspective, optics and light 142</li> <li>• Trompe l'œil 146</li> <li>• 'Scamilli' 148</li> <li>• The relationship between object, emptiness and axiality 150</li> <li>• A mental exercise. The virtual Rubens city: a symbiosis of Polybius and Galeazzo Alessi 153</li> <li>• Conclusion 156</li> </ul>
List of works exhibited	158
Bibliography	168
Index	174
Photographic Credits	176	