

DETAIL Practice

Acoustics and Sound Insulation

Principles
Planning
Examples

UNIVERSITÄT
LIECHTENSTEIN
Bibliothek

Eckard Mommertz
Müller-BBM

Birkhäuser
Edition Detail

Contents

6	Introduction
8	Designation and auditive perception of sound
12	Room acoustics
24	Building acoustics
38	Noise control in urban planning
48	Sound insulation as a quality feature in housing
56	Case study: Inner-city development, Munich
58	Office buildings
66	Case study: Swiss Re offices, Munich
68	Schools and preschool facilities
75	Case study: Primary school in Erding
78	Lecture theatres, congress halls, plenary chambers
80	Case study: Zollverein School of Management and Design in Essen
82	Small rooms for music
85	Case study: Music school in Grunwald
88	Case study: Conversion of an officers' casino into a music school in Landshut
90	Rooms for sound
103	Case study: Opera house in Hangzhou
104	Case study: Philharmonic in Essen
106	Churches
	Appendix
108	Authorities, institutes and trade associations, bibliography, standards and directives, manufacturers
111	Index
112	Picture credits