

EFFECTIVE KNOWLEDGE WORK: ANSWERS TO THE MANAGEMENT CHALLENGES OF THE 21ST CENTURY

KLAUS NORTH

Weisbaden Business School, Darmstadt, Germany

STEFAN GUELDBERG

University of Liechtenstein, Vaduz, Liechtenstein

With several case studies

United Kingdom - North America - Japan
India - Malaysia - China

Contents

Endorsements	vii
Foreword by the President of the Drueker Society Europe	ix
Preface	xiii
1. Knowledge Work(ers) — The Challenges	1
1.1. Three Reasons to Engage in Effective Knowledge Work	1
1.2. What is Knowledge Work?	11
1.3. Obstacles and Drivers of Effective Knowledge Work	28
Chapter 1 — Key Insights	41
2. Managing and Measuring Knowledge Work	43
2.1. On the Art of Leading Yourself as a Knowledge Worker	44
2.2. Knowledge workers and motivation	54
2.3. On the Art of Leading Other Knowledge Workers	65
2.4. Knowledge-Oriented Leadership in Learning Organisations	70
2.5. Making Knowledge Work Measurable	79
2.6. Strategies for Enhancing the Performance of Knowledge Workers	96
Chapter 2 — Key Insights	109
3. Resources for Effective Knowledge Work	111
3.1. Healthy Thinking	111
3.2. Learning and Competency Development	118
3.3. Coping with Information Overload	131
3.4. Fostering Collaboration	142
3.5. Standardisation and Outsourcing of Knowledge Work	155
Chapter 3 — Key Insights	163

4. How IC Technology Can Support Knowledge Workers	165
4.1. Custom Made Solutions for Knowledge Workers — What Is Important?	165
4.2. Strategic Orientation of Knowledge Management Systems: Function Follows Strategy	175
4.3. Increasing Efficiency Through ICT	185
Chapter 4 — Key Insights	196
5. Practising Effective Knowledge Work	197
5.1. Key Competencies for Knowledge Workers	197
5.2. Knowledge Managers as 'Coaches'	200
5.3. A Few Pragmatic Suggestions	204
Chapter 5 — Key Insights	206
 Bibliography	 209
 About-the' Authors	 217
 Index	 221