

Entrepreneurship

IN THEORU
AND PRACTICE

Paradoxes in Play

Table of contents

13	• Preface
17	• Introduction -The idea of the textbook
18	Target audience
19	The idea of the book: theory and practice in play
21	The structuring of the chapters into four parts
22	Entrepreneurship: a world of paradoxes
24	The structure of the book
26	Section 1: Welcome to entrepreneurship
26	Section 2: The entrepreneurial process
27	Section 3: The entrepreneurial content
28	Section 4: The entrepreneurial context
29	Additional material
29	Feedback
31	• Chapter 1 - What is entrepreneurship?
32	An elevator-pitch for entrepreneurship
32	Elevator-Pitch for you
33	Elevator-Pitch for existing organisations
33	Elevator-Pitch for society
34	A historical flashback
35	The economic tradition
37	The social-psychological tradition
38	The emergence tradition
39	The opportunity tradition
39	The starting point of the book
40	A complementary approach
42	Core topics
43	The importance of the context
44	Ready for departure
49	• Chapter 2 - Who is the entrepreneur?
49	Meet entrepreneurship in practice
49	To have a dream
51	Engineer in a foreign territory
53	your immediate interpretation
54	Theories of entrepreneurship
55	The entrepreneur is a character in disguise

55	Entrepreneurs are Born
57	Entrepreneurs are Made
62	Entrepreneurs: Born or Made?
64	A theoretical interpretation
64	The born-perspective
65	The made-perspective
67	Practical tests of the theory

71 • Chapter 3 - Emergence of opportunities

71	Meet practice
71	A brilliant idea
73	your immediate interpretation
73	Theories of entrepreneurship
74	Opportunity versus idea
75	The extent of intentions and opportunities
77	Types of opportunities
80	Discovery of opportunities
82	Creation of opportunities
84	Opportunities: discovered or created?
85	Atheoretical interpretation
85	The discovery perspective
86	The creation perspective
87	Practical tests of the theory

91 • Chapter 4 - Evaluation of opportunities

91	Meet practice
92	"The sky is the limit"
95	your immediate interpretation
95	Theories of entrepreneurship
96	What is evaluation?
97	The instrumental evaluation
102	Evaluation through creation of legitimacy
106	Evaluation: Instrumental or legitimate?
107	A theoretical interpretation
107	The instrumental perspective
108	The legitimacy perspective
110	Practical tests of the theory

113 • Chapter 5 - The organising of opportunities

- 113 Meet practice
- 113 A famous chef: "It just happened"
- 117 your immediate interpretation
- 118 Theories of entrepreneurship
- 118 What is an organisation?
- 120 What does organising involve?
- 124 Organising is not always successful
- 125 Organising can be planned
- 128 Organising is about improvising
- 130 Organising: planning or improvising?
- 131 A theoretical interpretation
- 131 The planning perspective
- 132 The improvising perspective
- 133 Practical tests of the theory

137 • Chapter 6 - Resources

- 137 Meet practice
- 137 An idea about 3D-carpet
- 141 your immediate interpretation
- 141 Theories of entrepreneurship
- 142 A change in focus - from market to resource focus
- 143 Resource-based theory
- 146 Tripartition of resources
- 149 Exploitation of resources
- 150 Exploration of resources
- 152 Resources: to exploit or explore?
- 153 A theoretical interpretation
- 153 The exploitation perspective
- 154 The exploration perspective
- 154 Practical tests of the theory

157 • Chapter 7 - Network

- 157 Meet practice
- 157 The underground culture of hip-hop in Vejle
- 161 your immediate interpretation
- 161 Theories of entrepreneurship

162	Theory of entrepreneurship and networks
163	The heterogeneity argument
167	The homogeneity argument
169	Effective networks depend on the situation
171	Network as a rational tool
173	Embedded in network
175	Network: rational or embedded?
176	Atheoretical interpretation
176	The rational perspective
177	The embeddedness perspective
178	Practical tests of the theory

181 • Chapter 8 - The business plan

181	Meet practice
181	The four Fs as the foundation stone
183	your immediate interpretation
184	Theories of entrepreneurship
185	The business plan: context, content and process
188	Planning
188	The content of the business plan
190	The business plan as a management tool
192	The business plan as a curb of creativity
194	The business plan: a management tool or a curb of creativity?
195	A theoretical interpretation **
195	The management perspective
196	The curb of creativity-perspective
196	Practical tests of the theory

199 • Chapter 9 - Intrapreneurship

199	Meet practice
199	A golden egg of considerable size
202	your immediate interpretation
202	Theories of entrepreneurship
203	The background history
205	A diverse concept
209	The process behind intrapreneurship
211	Top-down intrapreneurship

212	Bottom-up intrapreneurship
216	Intrapreneurship: top-down or bottom-up?
218	A theoretical interpretation
218	The top-down perspective
219	The bottom-up perspective
220	Practical tests of the theory
223	• Chapter 10 - Social entrepreneurship
223	Meet practice
223	Emphasising social and economic rights of elderly people
226	IT-aids for cognitively disabled people
228	your immediate interpretation
229	Theories of entrepreneurship
230	Introduction to social entrepreneurship
231	Social entrepreneurship as a continuum
232	To create a better world
234	Social entrepreneurship as business
235	The emergence tradition and the opportunity tradition
236	Social entrepreneurship: Business or a better world?
237	A theoretical interpretation
237	The business perspective
238	The better-world perspective
239	Practical tests of the theory
243	• Chapter 11 - Synthesis and conclusion
243	The paradoxes in the book
245	A synthesis of the paradoxes
245	An objectivistic approach
247	A subjectivistic approach
248	Advantages and limitations associated with the two approaches
249	your journey begins now
255	• Index —"