

FINANCIAL REGULATION AND SUPERVISION

A Post-Crisis Analysis

Edited by

EDDY WYMEERSCH

KLAUS J. HOPT

GUIDO FERRARINI

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

DETAILED CONTENTS

| | |
|------------------------------|--------|
| Table of Cases | xxi |
| Table of Legislation | xxiii |
| List of Abbreviations | xxxv |
| List of Contributors | xxxvii |

PART I EUROPEAN REFORM AS A RESPONSE TO THE 2008 CRISIS

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| 1. Restructuring Global and EU Financial Regulation: Character, Capacities, and Learning | |
| Julia Black | |
| Introduction | 1.01 |
| Financial regulation—a polycentric regime | 1.08 |
| Policy battlefronts and opposing forces | 1.13 |
| Opposing forces | 1.13 |
| Policy battlefronts | 1.19 |
| Emerging structures of coordination: the global level | 1.40 |
| The changing role of the IMF | 1.63 |
| Restructuring at the regional level: reconfiguring EU financial regulation | 1.68 |
| Managing the financial regulatory regime: orchestrating interactions | 1.72 |
| Types and methods of interaction | 1.72 |
| Levels of interaction: multi-lateral supervisory arrangements and supervisory colleges | 1.88 |
| Potential strategies for developing capacities, responsiveness, and learning | 1.98 |
| Information | 1.101 |
| Cognitive challenge | 1.107 |
| Summary and conclusions | 1.108 |
| 2. Unfinished Business: An Assessment of the Reforms | |
| Sir Howard Davies | |
| Moving at different speeds | 2.01 |

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| What went wrong? | 2.06 |
| Will we now get it right? | 2.11 |
| Slowing down reforms | 2.23 |
| Institutional reforms | 2.28 |
| 3. The Relationship between Micro-Macro-Prudential Supervision and Central Banking | |
| David Green | |
| The issue | 3.01 |
| The irreducible functions of a central bank | 3.03 |
| Supervision at the central bank | 3.08 |
| Supervision separate from the central bank | 3.15 |
| Blurring the lines | 3.23 |
| Differences in process | 3.27 |
| Interconnection is crucial | 3.32 |
| 'Macro-prudential policy' | 3.40 |
| Making macro-prudential policy operational | 3.43 |
| Conclusion | 3.52 |

PART II THE NEW EUROPEAN SUPERVISORY ARCHITECTURE

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| 4. Supervision in the Wake of the Financial Crisis: Achieving Effective 'Law in Action'—A Challenge for the EU | |
| Niamh Moloney | |
| Introduction | 4.01 |
| Effective supervision and the financial crisis: new light on an old problem? | 4.04 |
| The complexities of supervision: designing a best practice template | 4.17 |
| What is 'good' supervision? | 4.17 |
| Designing a system | 4.22 |
| The international dimension | 4.49 |
| The EU model | 4.57 |
| Law in action and the European Securities and Markets Authority | 4.57 |
| A best practice template? | 4.62 |
| Lessons from CESR? | 4.71 |
| Conclusion | 4.80 |

5. Understanding the New Institutional Architecture of EU Financial Market Supervision

Eilis Ferran

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Introduction | 5.01 |
| Member State-based supervision of financial markets | 5.07 |
| Organization of supervision at national level | 5.07 |
| The structure of pre-crisis financial market supervision at the EU level | 5.11 |
| From the Lamfalussy Level 3 Committees to the European Supervisory Authorities | 5.38 |
| Post-crisis reform of the structure of EU financial market supervision: overview | 5.38 |
| Taking stock | 5.85 |

6. A European Framework for Macro-Prudential Oversight

Chryssa Papathanassiou and Georgios Zagouras

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Introduction | 6.01 |
| Issues of competence | 6.02 |
| Tasks and objectives | 6.05 |
| Macro-prudential oversight versus micro-prudential supervision | 6.05 |
| The organizational framework | 6.15 |
| The General Board | 6.17 |
| Steering Committee and Secretariat | 6.19 |
| Conclusions | 6.20 |

7. The New Structure of Financial Supervision in Europe: What's Next?

Carmine Di Noia and Maria Chiara Furlò

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Introduction | 7.01 |
| The new EU supervisory structure | 7.02 |
| The evolution of the financial system | 7.02 |
| From the de Larosière Report to the supervisory package | 7.12 |
| The main features of the EU financial regulatory package | 7.16 |
| The European Systemic Risk Board in short | 7.18 |
| The European Supervisory Authorities | 7.23 |
| The new EU supervisory structure: how to fill the half empty glass | 7.54 |
| ESRB competences | 7.54 |
| ESAs: regulatory and supervisory powers | 7.61 |
| ESAs governance | 7.68 |

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| What's next in the long term? A proposal | 7.71 |
| The objectives of regulation | 7.71 |
| 8. Nationally Fragmented Supervision over Multinational Banks as a Source of Global Systemic Risk: A Critical Analysis of Recent EU Reforms | |
| Guido Ferrarini and Filippo Chiodini | |
| Introduction | 8.01 |
| Supervising multinational banks in the light of the recent crisis | 8.06 |
| The rise of multinational banks | 8.06 |
| Cross-border supervision and crisis management | 8.09 |
| Policy analysis | 8.20 |
| Centralizing supervision | 8.20 |
| Centralizing crisis management | 8.31 |
| Recent reforms in Europe | 8.35 |
| Cooperation mechanisms | 8.36 |
| Lead supervisor and consolidating supervisor | 8.45 |
| The new European supervisory architecture | 8.47 |
| Why should the EU enhance centralization? | 8.60 |
| A critical assessment of the new European framework | 8.60 |
| The legal basis for centralizing supervision | 8.66 |
| Conclusions | 8.69 |
| 9. The European Financial Supervisory Authorities or ESAs | |
| Eddy Wymeersch | |
| Introduction | 9.01 |
| Overall presentation | 9.01 |
| Antecedents | 9.06 |
| The ESAs' remit | 9.27 |
| Objectives | 9.28 |
| The ESAs' scope of action | 9.39 |
| The ESAs 'legally binding' powers | 9.50 |
| Regulatory Technical Standards (RTS) | 9.52 |
| 'Breach of Union law' (Art 17) | 9.78 |
| 'Action in emergency situations' | 9.109 |
| Mediation or 'settling disagreements between competent authorities' | 9.119 |
| Consumer protection and financial activities (Art 9) | 9.141 |
| The safeguard clause (Art 38) | 9.158 |
| The non-legally binding tools | 9.162 |
| Supervisory cooperation, convergence, and efficiency | 9.164 |
| Contribute to systemic surveillance and financial stability (Arts 22–27) | 9.190 |
| Policy support function | 9.200 |

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| The European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS) | 9.204 |
| The Joint Bodies of the European Supervisory Authorities | 9.206 |
| The Joint Committee | 9.206 |
| The Board of Appeal | 9.219 |
| The ESA's governance | 9.238 |
| The Board of Supervisors (BoS) | 9.240 |
| The Management Board | 9.259 |
| The Chairperson | 9.269 |
| The executive director | 9.277 |
| The Securities and Markets Stakeholders Group | 9.279 |
| Accountability | 9.288 |
| Administrative provisions | 9.291 |
| Financial matters | 9.292 |
| Internal organization of the ESAs | 9.300 |
| Review clause and further developments | 9.307 |
| Conclusion | 9.311 |

PART III REGULATION IN SEARCH FOR A PURPOSE

10. Post-Financial Crisis Trading and Clearing Reforms in the EU: A Story of Interest Groups with Magnified Voice

Gerard Hertig

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------|-------|
| Introduction | 10.01 |
| OTC derivatives: few players, more voice | 10.06 |
| Transparency reforms | 10.14 |
| Channelling trades through 'official' platforms | 10.18 |
| Mandating the use of clearing houses | 10.22 |
| Conclusion: managing voice imbalances | 10.26 |

11. Corporate Governance of Banks after the Financial Crisis

Klaus J. Hopt

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| Corporate governance of firms and its relevance for banks | 11.01 |
| Corporate governance and bank governance: | |
| An emerging discussion | 11.01 |
| Internal and external corporate governance: different relevance for banks | 11.08 |
| Corporate governance of banks | 11.16 |
| Corporate governance of banks and the financial crisis | 11.16 |
| Equity governance and debt governance: parallel and divergent interests of management/board, shareholders, debtholders, and regulators/supervisors | 11.24 |

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| The ambiguous role of deposit insurance and bail-out | 11.33 |
| Internal corporate governance of banks: corporate and supervisory law reform measures under discussion | 11.34 |
| Less suited corporate law reforms (stakeholder governance, stakeholder goal, duties and liabilities, hybrid capital) | 11.35 |
| Supervisory law requirements for board and bank structure and internal procedures | 11.41 |
| Supervisory law requirements for people | 11.50 |
| Conclusion: co-regulation for corporate governance of banks and no general spill over of bank governance requirements to firm governance | 11.59 |
| Summary and theses | 11.61 |
| Corporate governance of firms and its relevance for banks | 11.61 |
| Corporate governance of banks | 11.64 |
| Internal corporate governance of banks: corporate and supervisory reform proposals under discussion | 11.67 |
| Spilling over of bank governance to firm governance? | 11.72 |
| | |
| 12. The Financial Crisis: Does Good Corporate Governance Matter and How to Achieve It? | |
| Jaap Winter | |
| Introduction | 12.01 |
| The governance crisis of 2001–03 | 12.04 |
| Persistent governance problems | 12.07 |
| Executives | 12.08 |
| Non-executives | 12.13 |
| Shareholders | 12.17 |
| CRD IV: better governance of banks? | 12.19 |
| Risk governance | 12.21 |
| Remuneration | 12.25 |
| Non-executives | 12.27 |
| Shareholders | 12.31 |
| Conclusion | 12.34 |

PART IV THE INTERNATIONAL DIMENSION:
NEW CHALLENGES

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| 13. Developments Regarding Global Cooperation in Supervision of Financial Markets | |
| Antoine Van Cauwenberge | |
| Introduction | 13.01 |

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| The IOSCO multilateral approach to international enforcement cooperation | 13.07 |
| The 2002 MMOU | 13.07 |
| Future developments in global securities cooperation: supervisory cooperation | 13.75 |
| Overview of initiatives regarding international supervisory cooperation in the securities field | 13.75 |
| The IOSCO framework for supervisory cooperation | 13.97 |
| Conclusion | 13.104 |
| | |
| 14. The Last Frontier: Protecting Critical Functions across Borders | |
| Eva H.G. Hüpkes | |
| Introduction | 14.01 |
| Save functions, not institutions | 14.07 |
| The challenge | 14.10 |
| How to achieve an efficient and equitable cross-border solution | 14.11 |
| Towards a framework for cross-border resolution | 14.16 |
| Functional approach to resolution | 14.17 |
| Functional universality | 14.25 |
| The quest for continuity—market-based mechanisms | 14.34 |
| Conclusion | 14.45 |
| | |
| 15. Extraterritorial Reach of the US Financial Laws | |
| James Cox | |
| Extraterritorial reach of anti-fraud provision in private litigation | 15.01 |
| Foreign inspection of auditors of foreign issuers listed in United States | 15.07 |
| The ‘cooperative approach’ | 15.10 |
| Inspection work programme | 15.13 |
| Full reliance | 15.14 |
| Criticisms of PCAOB extraterritorial regulation | 15.16 |
| Extraterritorial scope of the whistleblower provision of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 | 15.24 |
| Applicability of §301 extraterritorially | 15.28 |
| Compliance with §301—US ‘best practices’ | 15.29 |
| Challenging the extraterritorial applicability of §301 | 15.33 |
| Conflicts with European data privacy laws | 15.35 |
| US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act | 15.55 |
| Jurisdiction | 15.56 |

Detailed Contents

| | |
|-----------------------------------------|-------|
| Basic prohibitions | 15.57 |
| Extraterritorial application | 15.60 |
| Department of Justice opinion procedure | 15.68 |
| Sanctions | 15.69 |
| Conclusion | 15.70 |
| Index | 471 |