

FROM CAMP TO CITY
Refugee Camps of the Western Sahara

Edited by Manuel Herz

ETH Studio Basel
Lars Muller Publishers

8	THE REFUGEE CAMPS OF THE WESTERN SAHARA	188	MOVING AND COMMUNICATION Global Spheres of Exchange Connecting by Moving The Omnipresence and Importance of Mobility Spaces of Movement Means of Transportation Interrelated Infrastructure Connecting the Camps with the World Movement in the Desert
34	A BRIEF HISTORY OF REFUGEES AND REFUGEE CAMPS Refugees Case Studies of Refugee Camps	248	COMMERCE AND WORK History of Trade Spaces of Trade Shop Portraits Diversity and Competition Working Goat Barns From a Utopian Ideal to a Market Economy
64	A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE WESTERN SAHARA The World's Last Colony The Precolonial Period The Colonial Period The Conflict Period	350	HEALTH AND EDUCATION Health and Education in the Colonial and Precolonial Era Overview of Health and Education in the Camps Hospitals Schools The School as an Urban Agent Shaping the Nation through Health and Education
78	PLANNING Urban Life in the Colonial Era The Refugee Camps Organization The Camps Today Urbanization of a Nation in Exile	406	RECREATION AND LEISURE Private Spaces Common Spaces Spaces for Sports Gardens The Significance of Recreation
112	LIVING Residential Typologies Construction Process Residential Compounds Land Planning The Politics of Housing	486	URBAN LABORATORIES
154	ADMINISTRATION A Unique Phenomenon Rabouni Administration in the Camps Spaces of Autonomy	494	CAMP SMARA, 2007-2011: A PHOTOGRAPHIC SURVEY