

Leading Change

by

John P. Kotter

Harvard Business School Press
Boston, Massachusetts

Preface	ix
PART i THE CHANGE PROBLEM AND ITS SOLUTION	1
1. Transforming Organizations: Why Firms Fail	3
2. Successful Change and the Force That Drives It	17
PART ii THE EIGHT-STAGE PROCESS	33
3. Establishing a Sense of Urgency	35
4. Creating the Guiding Coalition	5.1
5. Developing a Vision and Strategy	67
6. Communicating the Change Vision	85
7. Empowering Employees for Broad-Based Action	101
8. Generating Short-Term Wins	in
9. Consolidating Gains and Producing More Change	131
10. Anchoring New Approaches in the Culture	145
PART iii IMPLICATIONS FOR THE TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY	159
11. The Organization of the Future	161
12. Leadership and Lifelong Learning	175
About the Author	187