

Douglas Cumming • Lars Hornuf
Editors

The Economics of Crowdfunding

Startups, Portals and Investor
Behavior

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

1 Introduction	1
Douglas Cumming and Lars Hornuf
Part I Startups	9
2 Crowdfunding as a New Financing Tool	11
Gaël Leboeuf and Armin Schwienbacher
3 Signaling to Overcome Inefficiencies in Crowdfunding Markets	29
Silvio Vismara
4 The Crowd–Entrepreneur Relationship in Start-Up Financing	57
Thomas Lambert, Aleksandrina Ralcheva, and Peter Roosenboom
5 Fraudulent Behavior by Entrepreneurs and Borrowers	79
Christa Hainz

Part II	Market Structure	101
6	Fintech and the Financing of SMEs and Entrepreneurs: From Crowdfunding to Marketplace Lending Mark Fenwick, Joseph A. McCahery, and Erik P.M. Vermeulen	103
Part III	Backers and Investors	131
7	Crowdfunding as a Font of Entrepreneurship: Outcomes of Reward-Based Crowdfunding Ethan Mollick	133
8	Crowdfunding Creative Ideas: The Dynamics of Project Backers Venkat Kuppuswamy and Barry L. Bayus	151
Part IV	Recent Regulatory Efforts	183
9	The Regulation of Crowdfunding in the United States C. Steven Bradford	185
10	The Regulation of Crowdfunding in Europe Lars Klöhn	219
11	Individual Investors' Access to Crowdfunding: Two Regulatory Models John Armour and Luca Enriques	255
	Index	279