

Entrepreneurship, Innovation and Technology

A Guide to Core Models and Tools

Oswaldo Lorenzo, Peter Kawalek and Leigh Wharton

Contents

About the authors	VII
Acknowledgements	IX
Introduction	1
1 Stages of the entrepreneurial lifecycle	2
1.1 Introduction	3
1.2 Business opportunities	5
1.3 Ideation and testing: ideas, products and customers	13
1.4 Business model generation	16
1.5 Resource acquisition	19
1.6 Management and execution	23
Case Study N°1	27
1.7 Essential and additional resources	30
2 Business model innovation process	33
2.1 Introduction	34
The concept of business models	35
Disruptive innovations	35
Business model innovation	36
Application of technology into the innovation of business models	36
2.2 The concept of business model	36
2.3 The technological basis of disruption	39
2.4 Disruptive innovation	48
2.5 Business model innovation	50

2.6 Application of information technology into the innovation of business models 56

Case Study N°2 59

2.7 Essential and additional resources 62

3 Methods and tools for innovation 64

3.1 Introduction 65

3.2 Methods of innovation 66

3.3 Theories of innovation 68

3.4 Tools for innovation 74

Case Study N°3 84

3.5 Essential and additional resources 87

4 Entrepreneurial skills 88

4.1 Introduction 89

4.2 Adaptability 89

4.3 Find and manage people 91

4.4 Managing cash effectively 91

4.5 Focus on customers 92

4.6 Selling 93

4.7 Humility 93

4.8 Creating and managing alliances 93

4.9 Creativity and innovation 95

4.10 Optimism and inspiration 95

Case Study N°4 96

4.11 Essential and additional resources 99

5 Entrepreneurship and innovation management, an integrative approach 101

5.1 Introduction 102

5.2 Managing the entrepreneurial journey 104

5.3 Business model innovation 105

5.4 Innovation methods and tools 107

5.5 Becoming a successful entrepreneur 108

5.6 Final reflection 108

Case Study N°5 110

5.7 Essential and additional resources 112