

INTEGRATION WITHOUT MEMBERSHIP

SWITZERLAND'S BILATERAL AGREEMENTS WITH THE EUROPEAN UNION

MARIUS VAHL AND NINA GROLMUND

CENTRE FOR EUROPEAN POLICY STUDIES
BRUSSELS

CONTENTS

Executive Summary.....	1
1. Introduction	5
2. EU-Swiss relations and the Swiss political system	8
2.1 The development of EU-Swiss relations.....	8
2.2 The Swiss constitutional framework.....	14
2.2.1 The democratic principle.....	14
2.2.2 The federal principle.....	15
2.2.3 The neutrality principle.....	18
2.3 The conclusion of international treaties	19
2.3.1 Constitutional basis.....	19
2.3.2 Procedures for the conclusion of international treaties.....	19
3. The bilateral agreements between the EU and Switzerland.....	22
3.1 Earlier agreements.....	22
3.2 Bilateral I.....	24
3.2.1 Research.....	25
3.2.2 Technical barriers to trade.....	25
3.2.3 Free movement of persons.....	26
3.2.4 Air transport	26
3.2.5 Land transport	27
3.2.6 Agriculture.....	28
3.2.7 Public procurement.....	28
3.3 Bilateral II.....	29
3.3.1 Processed agricultural products.....	29
3.3.2 Statistics	30
3.3.3 Media	30
3.3.4 Environment	30
3.3.5 Pensions.....	31

3.3.6	Education, occupational training, and youth.....	31
3.3.7	Taxation of savings	32
3.3.8	Schengen	32
3.3.9	Dublin.....	33
3.3.10	Fight against fraud.....	33
3.4	Institutional framework of the bilateral agreements.....	34
3.4.1	Bilateral committees	34
3.4.2	Composition of the bilateral committees.....	35
3.4.3	Other committees.....	36
3.4.4	A special case: The Schengen Mixed Committee.....	36
3.4.5	Tasks of the bilateral committees.....	37
3.5	Adapting the agreements to new legislation.....	37
3.6	The settlement of disputes	40
4.	The bilateral sectoral approach in practice	42
4.1	The implementation of the bilateral agreements	42
4.1.1	From entry into force to full implementation	42
4.1.2	Incorporation of new acquis.....	45
4.1.3	Dispute settlement in practice.....	55
4.1.4	Transparency	57
4.2	The Europeanisation of Switzerland	62
4.2.1	Impact of the bilateral agreements on Switzerland.....	62
4.2.2	The bilateral agreements and the Swiss federal budget	64
4.2.3	EU-Swiss relations and economic reforms in Switzerland.....	66
4.2.4	European integration and the Swiss political system	67
5.	The bilateral sectoral approach and the European Economic Area	75
5.1	Introduction	75
5.2	Scope of the EEA	77
5.2.1	The core of the EEA	77
5.2.2	Horizontal issues and cooperation beyond the four freedoms.....	79
5.3	Institutional framework	81
5.3.1	The institutions of the EEA.....	81

5.3.2	Decision-shaping and decision-making.....	84
5.4	Incorporation and implementation of new acquis	87
5.5	The settlement of disputes	89
5.6	Conclusions	90
6.	The prospects for relations between the EU and Switzerland	94
6.1	Full implementation of Bilateral I and Bilateral II	95
6.2	Future agreements.....	96
6.2.1	Agreements under discussion.....	97
6.2.2	Outstanding issues.....	98
6.2.3	Expected adaptations to existing agreements	99
6.2.4	Other developments	100
6.3	Adaptations to the bilateral sectoral approach.....	100
6.3.1	The idea of an association agreement.....	100
6.3.2	Any role for the EEA institutions?	104
6.3.3	Other proposals	104
6.4	A new approach for EU-Swiss relations.....	105
6.4.1	Alternatives to the bilateral sectoral approach.....	109
6.5	A unique Swiss model?	110
	Sources and references	115
	Statistical Annex.....	118
	List of Abbreviations	121

List of Boxes

Box 1.	Agreements between Switzerland and the EU, 1956-2004.....	23
Box 2.	Bilateral I sectoral agreements	24
Box 3.	Bilateral II sectoral agreement.....	29
Box 4.	The Zürich airport case (Case C-70/04).....	56