

BECOMING AN ACADEMIC WRITER

50 Exercises for Paced, Productive, and Powerful Writing

Second Edition

PATRICIA GOODSON
Texas A&M University

USAGE

Los Angeles | London | New Delhi
Singapore | Washington DC | Melbourne

Brief Contents

Preface to Second Edition	xiii
Changes to First Edition	xiii
Preface to First Edition	xiv
Acknowledgements—Second Edition	xxi
Acknowledgments—First Edition	xxii
About the Author	xxv
Chapter 1. Get Ready to Practice	1
Part I. Practice Becoming a Productive Academic Writer
Chapter 2. Establish and Maintain the "Write" Habit	21
Chapter 3. Practice Building Academic Vocabulary	53
Chapter 4. Polish the Grammar	71
Chapter 5. Get Feedback	87
Chapter 6. Edit and Proofread	107
Part II. Practice Writing Sections of Journal Articles, Research Reports, and Grant Applications
Chapter 7. Exercises for Writing Introductions, Purpose Statements, or Specific Aims Sections	147
Chapter 8. Exercises for Writing the Methods Section	173
Chapter 9. Exercises for Writing the Results/Findings Section	191
Chapter 10. Exercises for Writing the Discussion or Conclusion Section	203
Chapter 11. Exercise for Writing Abstracts	223

Afterword	233
Appendix A. Reading-&-Writing: How to Stop Making the Literature Review an Excuse for Not Writing	237
Appendix B. Additional Resources	247
Author Index	253
Subject Index	257