

MORALITY AND
CULTURAL DIFFERENCES

John W. Cook

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Introduction 3

I. THE CLAIMS OF MORAL RELATIVISM

1. Moral Relativism versus Moral Absolutism 7
2. Moral Relativism: A Statement of the Doctrine 13
3. Further Misconceptions about Moral Relativism 24
4. The Paradoxes of Relativism 32

II. ANTHROPOLOGY AND MORAL RELATIVISM

5. The History of Relativism in Anthropology 51
6. Boas's Criticisms of Cultural Evolutionism 56
7. Boas's Methodological Insights 62
8. Relativism and Ethnocentrism 76
9. Is There Evidence Supporting Moral Relativism? 82
10. Some Obvious Instances of the Projection Error 93
11. The Projection Error as a Source of Moral Relativism 102
12. Pulling the Strands Together 106

III. PHILOSOPHY AND MORAL RELATIVISM

13. Westermarck's Concession and the Philosophical Argument for Moral Relativism 111
14. A Preliminary Assessment of the Philosophical Argument 116
15. What Is Morality? 125

16. Problems in the Philosophical Description of Morality
17. Enculturative Conditioning	139
18. Islandia and Despond	145
19. A Final Look at the Relativist's Argument	160
20. Our Relation to Other Cultures	165
Appendices	171
Notes	175
Index	201